Alibag, 29th August, 1913.

THE ASSOCIATED EXCHANGE BANKS.

THE ASSOCIATED EXCHANGE BANKS will be CLOSED, on WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, the 3rd and 4th September, 1913, being Public Holidays under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

THE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE PORT OF CALCUTTA.

Four Per Cent. Debenture Loan for Rs. 70 lakhs repayable in Thirty years.

TENDERS WILL BE RECEIVED UP TO noon on MONDAY, THE 8TH SEPTEMBER 1913.

IN accordance with the provisions of section 18 of the Calcutta Port Act 1890, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the Governor of Bengal in Council by an order No. 117 Marine, dated the 26th August, 1913, and published in the "Calcutta Gazette," on the 27th August, 1913, has been pleased to authorise the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta to raise a Debenture Loan of Rs. 70 lakhs for the carrying out of the purposes of the Act. The Debentures will rank pari passu with the other Rupee and Sterling Loans at present outstanding, with Loans from Government, and with any further Loans which may with the sanction of Government be contracted under the Act. The Debentures, and the interest thereon, are constituted by the Act a first charge on the properties now vested, or which may hereafter become vested, in the Commissioners and on the tolls, dues, rates, rents, and charges leviable under the Act.

By Bengal Government Notification No 855 J, dated the 4th March 1913, the Indian Trust Act as amended by Act II of 1908, has been extended to the province of Bengal.

The Debentures will be issued for sums of Rs. 100 each or multiples of Rs. 100 as may be required, made payable to order and carrying interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum payable, half-yearly on the 18th day of March and the 18th day of September, at the Public Debt Office, Bank of Bengal, upon presentation of the Debentures. The first payment of interest will be made on the 18th March 1914. The Loan will be repayable in 30 years, and the Commissioners are required under section 34 of their Act to set aside half-yearly out of their income by way of sinking fund such amounts as will suffice to liquidate the Loan within that period. The sinking funds are invested in the names of two Trustees, one being the Commissioners and the other a person appointed by the Local Government and are annually examined by the Accountant-General, Bengal.

Two per cent. of the amount tendered must be deposited on application either into the Bank of Bengal, Head Office or branches, to credit of the Commissioners, or at the Commissioners' office, and the balance 98 per cent. must be paid on or before the 17th day of September, 1913. Interest will accrue from the 18th September, 1913. The deposit of 2 per cent. on application will be returned if no allotment is made, and it will be forfeited if an allotment is not fully taken up by the 17th day of September.

Tenders will be received by the Secretary, Calcutta Port Trust, at the Commissioners' office, Kolla Ghat Street, up to noon on MONDAY, the 8th September, 1913. Tenders at different rates should be submitted on separate forms.

Printed forms of Tender can be obtained on application to the Secretary, at whose office, a form of the Debenture to be issued can be seen or from the Bank of Bengal, Head Office or Branches.

The Commissioners do not bind themselves to accept the highest or any Tender.

T. H. ELDERTON,
Offg. Secretary.

27th August, 1913.

If printed forms are not used, tenders should be made in the form given below and be sent in sealed covers superscribed "Tenders for Debenture Loan".

To THE SECRETARY,
To the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta, I/We the undersigned hereby apply for——— Debentures of Rs.———each of the above issue in the terms of the advertisement published by you, dated the 27th August 1913, and I/We send herewith a receipt for Rs.———being 2 per cent. deposit* on the par value of the Debentures and I/We undertake to accept the same or any less number the Commissioners may allot to me/us and to make the full payment in respect thereof to the Bank of Bengal on or before the 17th day of September 1913.

The amount I/We undertake to pay for these Debentures is Rs.———per cent.

BOMBAY MUNICIPALITY.

LOAN NOTIFICATION.

Particulars and conditions of two 4 per cent. Loans having a currency of 40 years each.

(1) The first Instalment of Rs. 35 Lakhs, of the 70 Lakhs Loan for Reduplication of the Tansa Water Works Main and other Auxiliary works, repayable in 40 years ending 1st June 1954.

(2) The first instalment of Rs. 10 Lakhs of the 20 Lakhs Loan for Street Improvements, repayable in 40 years ending 1st May 1955.

WITH the sanction of the Government of India, the Municipal Commissioner, on behalf of the Municipal Corporation of the City of Bombay, hereby invites tenders for the above Loans.

2. The Loans are to be raised on the security of the General Revenues of the Bombay Municipality, subject to any prior charges in respect of balances of previous Loans not yet fully paid off.

TENDERS.

3. Tenders for the whole or any portion of the above Loans will be received by the Municipal Commissioner, up to 12 o'clock, (noon) Bombay Time, on TUESDAY, the 9th September, 1913. Tenders must be for sums of Rs. 500 or multiples of Rs. 500.

4. Each tender must be addressed to the Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay and enclosed in a sealed cover, superscribed,

(I) "Tender for Rs. 35 Lakhs of the 70 Lakhs Loan for Reduplication of Tansa Main."

(II) "Tenders for Rs. 10 Lakhs of the 20 Lakhs Loan for Street Improvements."

The superscription should be strictly adhered to.

5. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in Rupees or Rupees and Annas; it must not contain a fraction of an anna; if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

6. The Municipal Commissioner does not bind himself to accept the highest or any tender or tenders and further reserves to himself the right to accept the whole, or such portion only, as he may think proper, of any sum tendered for.

7. Tenderers, whose tenders are accepted, will have to pay into the Chief Accountant's Office the whole amount of the tender not later than the

(1) 30th November 1913 in respect of the loan for 35 Lakhs for the Reduplication of Tansa Main.

(2) 31st October 1913 in respect of the loan for 10 Lakhs for Street Improvements.

8. In the event of any of the above Loans being over-subscribed the amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate, in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders, provided that no allotment will be made in respect of any portion of a tender thus distributable which amounts to less than Rs. 500.

DEPOSITS.

9. A sum equal to 2 per cent. on the par value of the debentures tendered for must be deposited with each tender. A separate deposit must be made in respect of each tender. Interest will not accrue until payment of the tendered amount in full is made, as specified in clause 7.

10. Deposits must be in one of the following forms:—

(a) Cash or Currency Notes.

(b) A cheque drawn in favour of the Municipal Commissioner on a Bank in Bombay.

(c) Government promissory Notes, Municipal, Port Trust, or Bombay Improvement Trust Debentures, blank endorsed.

11. Deposits not being Government Promissory Notes, or Municipal, Port Trust or Bombay Improvement Trust Debentures, will, in the case of tenders accepted either wholly or in part, be credited in part payment of the total amount of an accepted tender.

12. If, after the acceptance of any tender either wholly or in part, the allotment is not fully taken up by the date specified above, the deposit in connection with the tender will be forfeited.

13. Deposits on tenders which may not be accepted, either wholly or in part, will be returned without interest, on application to the Chief Accountant, Bombay Municipality.

INTEREST AND SINKING FUND.

14. Interest will be paid half-yearly in Bombay at the rate of four per cent. per annum, and a sufficient sum will be set aside annually and invested, in such manner as may be authorised by the law for the time being in force, to provide for the payment of the whole of the principal of the Loans on the dates of repayments mentioned above.

15. Interest will accrue on accepted tendered amounts only from the dates of payment in full into the Chief Accountant's Office, and will be paid in Bombay, by the Bank of Bombay, or such other Agent or Agents as may be appointed by the Corporation from time to time in that behalf, as follows:—

(1) With regard to the Loan of Rs. 35 lakhs for Reduplication of Tansa Main, from the date of payment in full to the 30th November 1913, on 1st December 1913 and thereafter on the 1st June and 1st December of each year.

(2) With regard to the 10 lakhs Loan for Street Improvements, from the date of payment in full to the 31st October 1913, on 1st November 1913 and thereafter on the 1st May and 1st November of each year.

16 To each tenderer, whose tender is accepted either wholly or in part, and who pays the amount of the accepted tender on or before the date specified in clause 7 above, scrip receipts for payments made will be granted by the Chief Accountant, Bombay Municipality. Debentures will be issued in exchange for such receipts as soon as possible.

17. Forms of tender can be obtained on application at the Chief Accountant's Office.

Tenders should be made in the form given below.

Forms of Tenders can be obtained, on application to the Secretary, Karachi Port Trust, and to the Bank of Bombay, Bombay or Karachi.

Tenderers may pay their instalments into the Bank of Bombay, Bombay or Karachi, to credit of the Karachi Port Trust and forward the Bank's receipt to the Chairman, Karachi Port Trust.

The Trustees reserve the power of rejecting all or any of the tenders made.

N.B.—TRUST FUNDS.

In accordance with the powers contained in section 20, clause (f) of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, the Sadar Court of the Province of Sind has passed a rule declaring that Trust property consisting of money may be invested in Debentures issued by the Trustees of the Port of Karachi under the Local Authorities Loans Act XI of 1897 or other law for the time being in force until further order. Orders to the same effect have been passed by the Chief Courts and Authorities of Bombay, Madras, Punjab and Lower Burma.

The following figures illustrate the progress of the Port Trust in the last 22 years.

Year.	Revenue Receipts.	Revenue Expenditure	Surplus.
1890-91	7,43,075	7,58,342	... ..
1900-01	8 40,717	10,13.649	.....

WHISKY NOGGIN.

WE SELL this miniature whisky jug mounted in Silver. It holds just one gill and is cleaner and more elegant in use than the pegmeasure of the refreshment bar type. As each guest is served with one for his exclusive own it becomes unnecessary to urge the importunate question of quantity. The noggin is a silent and home like suggestion of "just help yourself," while the obtrusive "half or full peg Sir!" sounds too business like.

RUN OVER BY A HACK VICTORIA.

Atmaram Babaji, a Hindu, aged thirty years, died at the G. T. Hospital on Saturday morning as a result of injuries sustained by being knocked down and run over by a hack victoria. It was stated that on Friday the man was walking along Abdul Rehman street. The horse attached to the victoria was said to have taken fright at a passing municipal rubbish cart and bolted. The man who was passing in front of the carriage was knocked down and the wheels of the carriage went over him. He was immediately removed to hospital, but succumbed to his injuries.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE EXCELSIOR.

Patrons of the Excelsior will be interested to hear that arrangements have been made for frequent variety attractions during the coming season in addition to the finest pictures that are produced. In most cases the artistes will arrive direct from Home. Care will be taken to ensure that the entertainments will be of the same refined character as in the past, and the Excelsior will always be, as it is now, a pleasant place of recreation, where under the most comfortable conditions a high class programme without any trace of vulgarity may be enjoyed. There is not much doubt that there is ample scope for such a class of entertainment, as is contemplated in the city, and after the public have tried the new arrangements the Excelsior variety will be as popular as the Excelsior pictures now are. Further particulars will be announced shortly. For next week there is a versatile lady artiste, who has achieved a reputation in London and South Africa, who is now in Bombay, and the following week will see the arrival of a troupe of Japanese acrobats.

A DETECTIVE STORY FILM.

Quite a novelty for Bombay is the principal film, which is being shown this week at the Excelsior. It is a detective film of the best type, with "A maze of mystery" for its title. Never was a title amply justified. The story is full of incident and interest, and the mounting and acting are superb. It is in three parts and takes well on an hour to produce, but it is a kind of film that grips the attention all the way through. The plot is most ingenious and the story is cleverly worked out with the ability of a Conan Doyle for the invention of mysterious situations and the unravelling of them. It is one of the most striking of the many striking films seen at the Excelsior. Wiffles is in the leading role in the other film. Pathe's Gazette has features of special interest as well.

A Aches and pains

Such as sprains, strains, backache, wrenched joints, aching feet, bruises, swellings, crick-in-the-neck, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism—all aching muscles and quivering nerves—can be quickly soothed, relieved and cured by rubbing in Little's Oriental Balm.

There is no question about this. The Balm is no experiment—for years and years it has been the world's best remedy for aches and pains.

Don't suffer and worry and fret. Don't lose sleep and grow thin. Don't let pain rob you of all enjoyment. Little's Oriental Balm is made expressly to save you from all aches and pains. And it will do it.

Sold at Re. 1 per bottle. Of all Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout India.

Fresh and fragrant, straight from the oven

That is how Paisley Flour cakes, scones, and rolls may be safely eaten and enjoyed.

The ease and simplicity in use of Paisley Flour will enable your cook to bake successfully.

For home baking use always

"PAISLEY FLOUR"
The SURE raising powder

and go by the rule—mix well, dry, 1 part of Paisley Flour to 8 parts of ordinary flour.

An excellent selection of recipes accompanies every tin, and the Brown & Polson Book of 73 recipes is post free from Mackenzie, Lyall & Co., Lyon's Range, Calcutta.

MARKET REPORT.—
The following are the latest telegrams received here:—
WELD & Co.:—Liverpool:—"Market opened lower than expected on long liquidation in cosequence of some rains reported in Texas. The coast prediction is that weather is unsettled. Showers predicted in Oklahoma. Market eased towards the close on long liquidation and poor New York report. New York Journal of Commerce estimates the average condition at 71·4 per cent; and Miss Giles gives her estimate as 69·9 per cent."
A. STERN & Co.:—"Miss Giles 69·9. New York Journal of Commerce 71·4."
GRUNING & Co.:—"Prevailing opinion is that the Market will react temporarily owing to bulls realizing to secure profits. A reaction is due."
Price:—"We doubt if it is advisable to follow the advance."
The American markets were easier before closing for the Labour Day holidays, New York being 11 points lower for October and New Orleans 14 points lower for the same delivery. The decline was due to reports of some rain in Texas, and showers predicted in Oklahoma New York, and New Orleans will reopen on Tuesday morning, and the Bureau Report will be published in New York at noon on that day. The Liverpool market will remain open until 6 p. m. on Tuesday for the Bureau Report. The local market opened quiet at Rs. 296 for good Broach March and Rs. 241 for fully good Bengal January. Little business was done during the early part of the day and prices were a trifle easier. The market was entirely closed at Colaba for a holiday (Pachushan). Rates are as under.

GOLF IN BOMBAY.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The following programme of competitions for the annual meeting of the Royal Bombay Golf Club have been arranged. The meeting will start on Monday, September 22, and extend over two weeks until October 3. The senior competitions are open to those whose handicap is less than 8 on 18 holes and the junior competitions to those whose handicap is 8 or over.

First Competition :—18 holes scratch competition against "bogey." Seniors: —Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 22 and 23. Juniors : Wednesday and Thursday. Sept. 24 and 25. "Bogey's" score for the nine holes in the senior class will be 5, 6, 5, 4, 6, 5, 6, 4, 3,= 44. In the junior class "bogey's" score will be 5, 6, 5, 5, 7, 6, 6, 4, 4,= 48. First and second prizes in each class will be awarded.

Seniors: Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 30 and Oct 1. Juniors: Thursday and Friday, Oct. 2 and 3. Two prizes in each class for both scratch and handicap will be awarded.

GYMKHANA MUD SPORTS.

PROGRAMME FOR THE NEXT MEETING.

The programme for the next Bombay Gymkhana Mud Sports to be held (weather permitting) on Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1913, at 5-30 p.m , is as follows:—

1. Tent Pegging with Swords.—Horses and Ponies. No marks will be given if the competitor does not gallop

2. Ladies' Polo Ball Stakes.—Ladies will each nominate a partner and ride from a mark to the nearest of a line of four posts on which Polo Balls are placed. These balls will be taken off one by one and carried to a fence and thrown by the lady to her partner, who will be standing behind a mark on the further side of the fence. The partner must catch the ball before it touches the ground and place it in a basket. If a ball is not caught, the partner must take it to his lady who will throw it to him again. After the fourth ball has been thrown and caught and deposited in her partner's basket, the lady will ride the prescribed course.

If a lady knocks a ball off a post, her partner must replace it and then return to his position.

3. Individual Jumping.—Horses and Ponies.

4. Half Section V. C. Race.—Men will ride a course leading their partner's horse to him. The latter will saddle the led-horse, mount and complete the course in half-sections. Points may be given for correct style and dressing.

5. Scurry.—Horses and Ponies. Distance Handicap. Two races if sufficient entries.

6. Woolwinder's Stakes.—Ladies' Nomination. Gentlemen carrying skeins of wool will ride the course, including fence, hand hoses to syces and present skeins to ladies who, with the assistance of their partners, will wind the skein into a ball and hand the ball to their partners who finish over the fence and the course.

Competitors are requested to turn out quickly for each event.

By kind permission of Col. R. E. Pigott and officers, the band of the 1st Battalion, B. B. and C. I. Ry. Volunteer Rifles, will play during the afternoon.

THE AMERICA CUP.

A New York, message says:—

Three syndicates, headed respectively by Messrs Cornelius, Vandderbilt, George Pyneheon, and A. Cochran, have been formed with the object of building three yachts from which the vessel to compete against Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht for the America Cup will ultimately be selected. The New York Yachr Club has declined to accede to Sis Thomas Lipton's request to sign an agreement providing that the defending yacht shall not exceed a definite size; but it is understood that the members of the syndicates mentioned above have agreed to build close to the measurements laid down by Sir Thomas Lipton in his challenge.

9 RUNS FROM ONE HIT.

Playing for Northamptonshire against Leicestershire at Leicester in mail week, Haywood scored 9 runs off one stroke, 4 being from an overthrow. There is no record of this number of runs having been exceeded in first-class cricket.

According to the "Sportsman," Mr W. Hall Walker has refused an offer of £30,000 for the stallian White Eagle.

F. Wootton, the Australian jockey, rod eight consecutive winners in Kent the week before mail week.

FOOTBALL.

FURTHER HONOURS FOR THE ROYAL SCOTS.

With the final game between the Royal Scots and the Durham Light Infantry on Saturday afternoon the Rovers' Tournament of 1913 was brought to an end.

The tournament this year has been a record one in every way. As Mr. E. Ferrers Nicholson said in a little speech he made when giving away the cups and medals, the average number of entries for past years has been 14. This year there were 17 entries, and teams from all over India competed. Of the teams in the final one came from the Murree hills and the other from Allahabad. Other entries were from Secunderabad, Kamptee, Kirkee, etc. The council of the H. I F. A. are to be congratulated on the success of the tournament which has been due in a large measure to the indefatigable efforts of the popular honorary secretaries, Messrs. Smart and Elliott. One of the most satisfactory things in connection with the tournament was the refereeing. In accepting the arduous duties of referee throughout the tourney Quarter-Master Sergt. Ashenhurst placed us under a very deep obligation to him.

A TOUGH PATH.

In getting into the finals the Royal Scots had a tough path to climb. They met and defeated the Bombay Gymkhana by three goals to nil. Then they encountered the Sherwood Foresters in a tussle that proved the best in the tournament. After a draw the Scots emerged victors by two goals to one. The Durhams met and defeated the Dorsets in the first round of the tourney. After that their path to the final was an easy one. If they were not successful in winning the Rovers, Cup they can console themselves with the fact that have secured a very fine trophy in the Leslie running competition. Each of the team was also given medals in this competition

The match on Saturday was somewhat tame. The Durhams considerably improved on the form they had shown in their last few matches and, in the opinion of many people, had the better of the game. In the first half they did most of the passing but no score resulted on either side. The second moiety had been in progress only a minute when the Scots scored. A long shot by McCabe, at a sharp angle, found its way into the net. The Durhams' goalkeeper apparently misjudged the ball and in jumping up to fist away collided with the cross bar and unshipped it at one end.

With the exception of this incident the game was comparatively tame. After they had secured their point the Royal Scots indulged in a large amount of kicking into touch which, though it may have been the wisest thing to do from the point of view of winning, was scarcely sporting and did not add to the interest of the game.

In winning the tournament this year the Royal Scots add a fourth victory to the successes of the regiment in this tourney. The Royal Scots have previously won the Rovers' Tournament in 1894, 1895 and 1906.

PREVIOUS WINNERS.

Previous winners of the tournament have been as follows :—

1912—2nd Bn. Dorset Regiment.

THE GAME.

Play was about five minutes late in starting. The Scots kicked off, defending the bandstand goal. The Durhams were the first to get down and shot behind. Race took the sphere down the left wing. Then Dunlop passing out to McCabe, that player put in one of his accurately placed centres and France headed past the upright. Stead made a good run down the right wing of the Durhams and centred to Ramsay whose shot glanced off an opponent. The corner kick was a good one. Thomson was given off-side at the other end. McCabe put a long shot behind.

A goal kick by the Durhams was returned and Thomson shot over the bar. Stead took the sphere up the right wing for the Durhams and some fine passing put the D. L. I. close in. Smith eventually cleared. The Durhams pressed for some time without getting really dangerous. An excellent pass in from Race was sent in by McNally to Ramsay. Hoile was just in time to prevent a shot and kick out into touch. The Scots got away and Dunlop sent a ground shot behind. The Scots located themselves for some time in their opponents' penalty area and hustled things.

Up and down play ruled for a time. Bevan put a fine clearing kick. A centre from McCabe was got away in time. Rennard ran out and kicked clear. A foul against the D. L. I. close in gave the Scots a fine kick but brought them on a particular advantage. Bevan presently miskicked and Rennard running out cleared a tight situation. A free kick was given the Durhams at the other end and Kilgour placed a fair shot just over the bar, McCabe tricked through a lot of opposition and called on Rennard to clear a well judged shot.

The Durhams took up the attack and Race received a long pass. Later Stead was responsible for some good work and put in a shot that was not far off the mark. Then Race put a fine centre across the goalmouth. Johnstone picked the ball up and was immediately charged and contrived to clear. First Riddle and then Bevan cleared well and a free kick was given the D. L. I. They were in front of the Scots' goal as the whistle blew for half time with the score standing :

Royal Scots ..... nil.
Durhams..... nil.

THE SECOND HALF.

Dearlove mis-kicked at the commencement of the second half and the Scots immediately got down. Some good passing put the ball out to McCabe and he put in a long centre which fell in the goalmouth. Rennard jumped to the ball and unplaced one end of the crossbar. The ball fell in the goal-line between the posts and passed into the net. (1-0.)

The Scots came again and secured a free kick which did not help them. Then Kilgour was responsible for a splendid shot from a long way out that fell top of the net. Stead ran down the right wing of the Durhams and centred well. The D. L. I. continued to press. Their play was, however, was loose and long kicking did not give the Scots backs much trouble. However, the Durhams kept up and Stead presently had a shot. McNally looked like getting through but was hustled off.

A foul against the Durhams drove them back and Bolton took a shot at the D. L. I. goal. The Durhams were soon back and the Scots found it necessary to kick into touch several times. Johnstone ran out and saved a corner. The Scots continued to kick into touch. Off-side was eventually given against the Durhams hard by the corner play. Some pretty combination among the Durhams put them close in again. Unfortunately McNally was given off-side. Still they pressed and their combination was good but lacked the finishing touch necessary to bring them the point they needed.

The Scots eventually caused some excitement by putting the ball aross the Light Infantry goal. Riddle ran across to kick and the sphere cannoned off Bolton and struck the outside of the net.

A foul throw in by the Durhams drove them back for a time but they were pressing continuously. A foul was given against them. The Scots continued to kick the ball into touch. Lobb headed for goal.

THE RESULT.

The game ended :

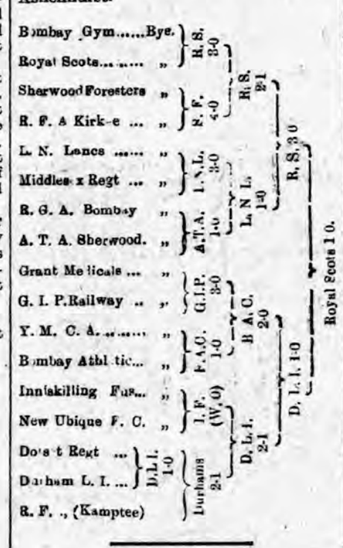
Royal Scots .....1 goal.
Durham Light Infantry.....nil

The following were the teams :—

ROYAL SCOTS :—(Dark Blue Jersey) Johnstone, (goal) ; Smith and Hoile, backs); Watson, Dunlop and Thompson (halves); McCabe, Bolton, Hastie France, and Thompson, (forwards).

DURHAM LIGHT INFANTRY.—(Dark Green and Red Band)—Rennard, (goal); Bevan and Riddle, (backs); Dearlove, Lobb and Kilgour; (halves), Stead, Ramsay, Hannant, McNally and Race, (forwards).

REFEREE :—Quarter Master Sergt. Ashenhurst.



RANGOON FOOTBALL.

RANGOON, Aug 31.

In the concluding game in the Football Senior League this evening the Munster Fusiliers beat the Gymkhana team by two goals to one, thus securing the trophy.

In the second League the Y. M. C. A. defeated the Customs Reserves by 8 to nil.

The cups and medals were given away at the close of the evening by Miss Johnstone.

ST. ANDREWS.

A NEW RECORD.

Andrew Kirkaldy, the Royal and Ancient professional golfer, playing with Mr. J. Morrice, jun., beat the record for the old course at St. Andrews in mail week with a round of 68, made up as follows : Out 4, 4, 3, 4, 4, 3, 4, 3, 3—32 ; home, 3, 3, 4, 5, 5, 4, 3, 5, 4—36.

The old Royal and Ancient professional hardly made a mistake. His approaching and putting were really prefect, the only blemish being at the thirteenth, where a stroke was dropped.

A FOURTH COURSE TO BE LAID OUT.

It decided at a special meeting of the St. Andrews Town Council, to lay out a fourth golf course to the westward of the Old Course

Mr. H. E. Colt, of Sunningdale, has been entrusted with the laying out of the course, and Mr Harris, of Sunningdale, has been appointed contractor. The estimate is £1,250, and the links committee is empowered to spend £2,500, exclusive of water-supply, which will be introduced later. Mr. Cheape, of Strathtyrum, the proprietor, has granted a long lease. The report submitted by Mr. Colt, is most favourable: The length can be varied and the course extended to 6,400 yards, but Mr. Colt believes that 6,100 yards would be ample for the purpose. There will be four short holes, and the round will afford a good opportunity for interesting iron play. The work, it is expected, will be begun in the course of a few weeks.

A HOLE IN ONE.

H. Nicholls, the Harewood Downs Professional, while playing with Mr. H. Trotter, did the eight hole (144 yards) in 1, and then, completing the round in a total of 67, created a new record for the Harewood Down altered course.

POONA RACES.

THE SIXTH EXTRA MEETING.

HORSE KILLED IN THE JUMP RACE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

POONA, Aug. 30.

We have now finished with our extra meetings before the big races come off and, truth to tell, most of us are rather glad of it.

Yesterday, we had the best of fine weather, with good going though, perhaps, this was somewhat on the hard side. There was a tremendous crowd in the enclosures, and Their Excellencies the Governor and Lady Willingdon were present.

The Officials of the Club and Day were :—Stewards : Mr. J. L. Ainsworth' The Hon. Mr. C. H. A. Hill, C. S. I., C. I. E., I.C.S., Lieut.-Col. H. M. Maxwell, Capt H. Meynell and Dr. J.A. Turner M. D. (Stewards of the Turf Club), and Brig-Gen. A. E. Aitken and Major J. G. Greig, C. I. E., (Stewards of the Meeting)

Stipendiary Steward : Col. Arthur Young ; Judge : Lieut.-Col. J S Forbes : Starter : Mr. A. O'Gorman ; Clerk of Scales : Major J. H. M. Davie ; Handicapper : Mr. J. Reynolds ; Timekeeper: Major F. D, Hunt ; Medical Officer: Capt. A. F. Hamilton M. B., I. M. S. Hon. Vet. Surgeon : Major Frasaie D. S. O., Secretary: Major T. E. Hughes.

We began the day's operations with the Mosul Plate. Sixteen were entered on the card and only one, Tagalie, withdrew. Good Success was tipped for the race, and Afzul Jung and Iron Chest were also supported. In the race Iron Chest was just beaten for second place by the outsider German Silver; while Afzul Jung was also only just deprived of the third place by another not-much-thought-of one in Sadil Malik. Punters, therefore, did not make any too good a beginning.

For the Garrison Plate, Miss Drake was installed favourite, though there were those who fancied Highwood. The list of eleven was cut down by the withdrawal of J. P. and Princess IV. The public had another substantial let down, for Mr. Crawford on Lady Anne just snatched the verdict from Portland Lad nearly as hot a favourite as Miss Drake. The winner paid up the nice dividend of 106 to her backers.

ANOTHER CAPSIZE.

In the Strangers' Plate, we had another capsize in the defeat of Sir Edward. The public have become used to the combination of Capt. Meynell and Sir Edward and most of the money went on it yesterday. Alas! The best they could do was third to Sidick who on previous running, and receiving eighteen pounds from Sir Edward, should have received more support than he did.

In the August Plate, popular voting went for Canberra, T. Ferguson up, which duly came off, the race being one of those easy affairs that need little talking about. It was a pretty heavy betting race, but each ten-rupee note only earned Rs. 7-8—the odds of 100 to 75 just about representing things.

In the Dalbousie Plate, we had the first bad cropper of the season, J. P. falling with his rider (Mr. Scott) and breaking his back. The accident happened at the last jump and Ferguson coming up on Better Luck had an escape, his mount actually coming down. J. P. has been consistently entered for events at each meeting, but his luckless appearance yesterday was his first in a race this year. We found the winner of the event in Offside ridden by Capt. Butler. It was a very poor betting race indeed, Utopian and Bulloo carrying a lot of whatever money was going.

A FAVOURITE'S WIN.

The Lanavla Plate was won by the favourite Nakil while the placed ones were also well in public favour. At the end Thulfha was coming up fast on the winner and with Brown up the horse will be worth watching in days to come. Thulfha and Money Gold, second and third, were both heavily backed.

In the first Division of the August Plate the old mare Hilarity was backed to, but there was only one in the hunt, Punt winning by five lengths from the favourite. The little bit of excitement necessary to enjoyment in losing our money came in the struggle for third place between Mayfoul and Bombastic. In the end they were not separated but it did not signify to the punting fraternity, for dividends did not go so far as a third place.

The last race of the day was also the biggest upset. Zaki Pasha was made favourite with Minerva, Kimberley and Ream all well backed. With the exception of Zaki Pasha, however, they were all out in the cold. The winner turned up in Kaharaman who won by the easy margin of three lengths, paying Rs. 253. The same stable also got a good thing home for third place in British King.

THE RACE :—It was a curious start, Terra Firma with Utopian a bit behind leading the field for two miles. Offside then came up Terra Firma dropping back. Offside took the lead with Bulloo lying second and Terra Firma third. At the last fence on the home journey J. P. fell and an immediate examination elicited that he had broken his neck. Mr. Scott, the rider, was somewhat badly injured. Better Luck was behind the fallen horse and he too came down but Ferguson had him up quickly. Meanwhile Offside had taken affairs in hand and won in the end by five lengths from Bulloo, Terra Firma being three lengths behind third.

TIME :—6 min. 6 secs.

TOTALISATOR :—Win, Rs. 32 ; places Rs. 18, 18 and 20.

THE LONAVLA PLATE.—Winner, Rs. 1,200; second, Rs. 500 ; third, Rs. 300. A handicap for Arabs. (Distance a mile and a half).

THE RACE :—At the start Zaki Pasha led with Sir Satu close up. After a furlong the two positions were reversed and shortly afterwards Kaharaman and British King came along and Zaki Pasha reverted to fourth place. Coming down the straight Sir Satu was done with and Kaharaman went to the front followed by Zaki Pasha, British King and Polish in that order. The former had things safe and won, easily by three lengths but Zaki Pasha, British King and Polish fought desperately for the places ultimately finishing in that order with a neck between each.

TIME—1 min. 22 secs.

TOTALISATOR :—Win, Rs. 253, places, Rs. 57, 30 1-2 and 125.

RACING.

Lewes Races started on Aug. 8, the principal race being the Astley Stakes, which fell to Mr. E. Hulton's Siller, ridden by Frank Wooton. At Haydock Park the Autumn Handicap was won by Mr. V. Thompson's Redwood.

The Lewes meeting was brought to a close on Aug. 9. The Lewes Handicap was won by Lord Derby's Willaura, the Three-Year-Old Selling Handicap by Mr. Wheatcroft's Liquer, and the Priory Plate by Sir R. Jardine's Baronin.

At the Nottingham Summer Meeting on Aug. 11 the Nottinghamshire Handicap was won by Mrs. J. B. Joel's Prince San, the Clifton Selling Plate by Mr. Braime's Myrabar, and the Bentinck Handicap by Sir S. Scott's Simile. On Aug 12 the Nottinghamshire Breeders' Foal Plate was won by Mr. S. B. Joel's Honeywood, the Welbeck Three-Year-Old Handicap by Mr. E. Dresden's San Juan, and the Bestwood Handicap by Mr. M. Gurry's Alga.

The principal race at Kempton Park on Aug. 13, the Greenwood Welter Handicap was won by Mr. P. Heybourn's Cigar.

At Folkestone on Aug. 12 A. Whalley rode winners in four of the six races which were on the programme.

YACHTING.

The regatta of the Royal Yacht Squadron at Cowes ended on Aug. 8 with a poor day's sport, the airs being too light and fluky to afford a satisfactory test to the capabilities of the competing craft. Under the circumstances no great importance was attached to the defeat of the King's cutter Britannia in the handicap for cutters, yawls, and ketches, or that of Margherita in the handicap for schooners. The former race was won by the ketch Julnar and the latter by the Germania, but the course was shortened in each instance. The race for the nineteen-metre class was won by Mariquita and the race for the fifteen-metre class by The Lady Anne.

There was a general exodus of yachts from Cowes roadstead on Aug. 9, when chilly, showery weather accentuated the deserted appearance of the place both ashore and afloat. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, however, remained. The King and Queen were early astir, and with Princess Mary and Prince Albert went on board his Majesty's racing cutter Britannia, which proceeded across the Solent to Calshot for the racing under the flag of the Royal Southern Yacht Club. It was gratifying that in the last race this season at which their Majesties will be present the King's old cutter scored another popular victory, and won her third cup of the week. Princess Mary and Prince Albert accompanied Capt. Philip Hunloke ashore at Calshot to receive the handsome trophy, which was proudly borne on board the Britannia by the Prince Albert.

POLO.

The Tigers beat Swillington, on Aug, 8, by 7 goals to 6 in the final tie of the competition for the Rugby Challenge Cup. The sides were :—Tigers.—Count de Madre, Mr. N. Scott-Robson, Capt. L. Cheape, and Mr. H. Scott-Robson (back). Swillington.—Lord Stafbridge Mr. G. Phipps Hornby, Sir C. Lowther, and the Hon. L. Lambart (back).

In the final tie for the Rugby Challenge Cup, on Aug. 9, Swillington beat the Tigers by 8 goals to 7. The sides were:—Swillington.—Mr. G. Phipps Hornby, Sir Charles Lowther, Mr. P. W. Nickalls, and Mr. C. D. Miller (back). Tigers.—The Court de Madre, Capt. R. G. N. Rails on, Capt. E. A. Wienholt, and Capt. L. Cheape, (back).

In the Junior Tournament final, on Aug. 9, Hillmorton beat the Tigers by 10 goals to 5. The sides were :—Hillmorton, Mr. F. Ellison, Mr. M. Ingscote, Mr. W. Balding, Mr. R. Whitehead (backs). Tigers.—The Count de Madre, Mr. N. Scott-Robson Capt. L. Cheape, and Mr. H. Scott-Robson (back).

GOLF.

Andrew Kirkaldy went round the old Course at St. Andrews on Aug. 9 in 68 strokes, which is a new record for the course. His score was :—Out, 4, 4, 3, 4, 4, 3, 4, 3, 3-32 ; home, 3, 3, 4, 5, 5, 4, 3, 5, 4,-36—total, 68.

Mr. Lionel Munn (Boyd Dublin) beat Capt. Henry Boyd (Portmarnock) by 6 holes up and 5 to play, at Portmarnock on Aug. 9, in the final round (thirty-six holes) of the Irish "Native" Amateur Championship, and thus gained his third victory in that competition.

Keen cricket was witnessed in mail week in the match between Norfolk and Staffordshire. Staffordshire gained a lead of one run on the first innings over Norfolk. Barnes was almost unplayable, and took nine wicket for 31, of which 21 were hit off him befor he took a wicket.

FACE AND NECK ALL BROKEN OUT.

In Blotches. Got No Relief, Only Smarting and Pain. Work Out of the Question. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

416, Glasshouse Row, Wrockwardine Wood, Wellington, Salop, Eng.—"It was in the latter part of 1907 my face was puffed and swelled. I called at the chemist's and he said it was what they called blast in the face. It got worse. I got no relief only smarting and pain. My face and neck were all broken out in blotches. I could get no rest night or day. Work was out of the question in the house. Then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they cured me and I have felt nothing of it since." (Signed) Mrs. Florence Elizabeth Lowe, May 24, 1912.

COMPLETELY COVERED IN RASH

104, Park Road, Loughbourgh, Leicestershire, Eng.—"Spots made their appearance until I was completely covered in a rash of large red pimples. They got so large and I would rub myself until I was like a fire and the spots would burst and matter would flow from them, and of course this made them spread. At last I read about the Cuticura treatment and after using the Cuticura sample and one more tin of Cuticura Ointment and one tablet of Cuticura Soap I was completely cured." (Signed) Miss W. A. Taylor, May 1, 1912.

No other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins and itching, scaly scalps. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout India, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. Skin Book, will be sent post-free on application to Mailer, Maclean & Co., Calcutta or Bombay, or Newbery, 27 Charterhouse Sq., London.

INFANT MORTALITY.

It is evident that the Indian Government have taken a practical interest in the important conference on infant mortality recently held in London from the fact that they sent as their delegate the Director of the Indian Medical Service, Surgeon-General Sir Charles P. Lukis. Several most important medical conferences have been held of late, national and international, but we question if any of them have touched on problems of more vital interest to the human race and of more importance to the British Empire than that of infant mortality. Infant mortality has been one of the causes that has made the death-rate in some parts of England, especially the large towns, so large, and it is gratifying to learn that so great an improvement has been made during the years in which the conference has been held, an improvement which is far in advance of the other diseases and evils in which signal progress has been made. In the seven years since the conference began, the general death-rate had diminished 13 per cent.; tuberculosis 18 per cent; but infant mortality over 30 per cent. It is reckoned that the total saving of life in the last seven years as compared with the previous seven was about 65,000 lives, and of this number it is estimated that the diminishing infant mortality is responsible for nearly 200,000. It is also pointed out that during the past year over 50,000 lives have been saved to the country and so made up for the great numbers who have emigrated to Australia. "The old world has been brought in to adjust the balance of the new, and with those snatched from death we were now peopling to the margins of the waste places of our Dominions. These were a few of the actual achievements of seven years, and that had been done mainly by the work of the Local Government Board." This claim was made by the Right Hon'ble John Burns in his inaugural address at the opening meeting of the conference referred to, and the head of the Board is to be congratulated on so manifest a success of their endeavours on behalf of child life.

Considering the great increase in the number of emigrants to the various British Colonies and other parts of the world, the problems connected with infant mortality closely concern the welfare of the English-speaking nations. Last year 300,000 people left England for Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United States, of which total about 82 per cent. went to the British Dominions. After pointing out these facts Mr. Burns in his speech said, "Considering the similarity of life, language, and aims, which characterised the English-speaking peoples, they were all called to the common duty of seeing that their stock was good, that their children were clean and healthy, that their women were virile, and that their men were enduring. They were to unite in seeing that the source of strength lay in noble womanhood, in healthy parentage, and in happy and healthy children; and as the stream was no purer than its source, it was their business, having concentrated so much on the child with such beneficial results during the last seven years, to see that they did not lose sight of the mother. He showed very clearly how much depends on the health of the mother and urged that steps should be taken for an improvement in the conditions in which the mothers were placed, especially before the birth of the children. It is interesting to note that clergymen and gardeners are considered to be the healthiest people, a fact due to their enjoying a condition of life and environment almost perfect for developing the physical, moral, mental, and the educational aspects of their existence. By steady effort Mr. Burns thought it was necessary that the community should aim to ful il the ideal conditions of such an existence, though he was convinced that such a process would, of necessity, be a long one. An examination of statistics shows that the babies of doctors died only at the rate of 40 per thousand, while the rates of other professions and trades are as follows:—The upper and middle classes, 77; artisans, 100 to 130; miners, 160; unskilled labourers, 160 to 250; agricultural labourers, 97 per thousand. The natural conclusion to be drawn from the above figures is that those with the best knowledge of the needs of the child's physical wants were the most successful in the rearing of children, and the community as a whole was asking the doctor to do for them what he has proved himself able to do for his own. With respect to the improvement which has taken place and to which reference has been made, Mr. Burns pointed out that this was due to several causes. In the schools medical inspections were regularly held, special care was being taken of mentally deficient children, maternity grants were now available for nearly 20,000 mothers every week, special precautions with respect to the milk supply had been taken, money had been granted for the destruction of cattle suffering from tubercular diseases. In some cases where infant mortality was high, as in Liverpool, it was due to the fact that some of the mothers might possibly have too many children to nourish properly, and Mr. Burns suggested that there were too many childless women mourning over cats and dogs who would, he thought, be much happier for the company of other people's children, and suggested that instead of wasting guineas and more on overcoats for lapdogs and slippers for hounds and bracelets for favourite pets, some of them should provide themselves with human substitutes. The need for a closer study of the diseases of maternity and paternity was also urged, for there can be no doubt that a great proportion of deaths is due to these causes. Together with a closer knowledge on the part of the medical profession on the diseases which are responsible for so great a loss in the child life of the country there must also be a steady process of education. Much has been done, and there is every hope that the near future will show a still further advance in the preservation of child life.

In this country the toll is also great, especially among female children. Those acquainted with the social conditions of Indian life know how great a value is set upon the male children and how keen parents are for sons. The old medical treatises deal very extensively with the care and nurture of children, but no one would profess that their methods were ideal. There is a great amount of superstition mixed up with the instructions; true, much of it harmless, but some decidedly detrimental. Steps have been taken by some doctors to disseminate information for the benefit of mothers, but much still remains if the infant mortality of India is to be brought within reasonable limits. The conditions of the two countries are very different, but there is every reason to believe that if some of the lines followed in recent years by the medical profession at home were followed, there would be a decided improvement. Every year the toll paid by plague, malaria, etc., is a great one, and it is essential if the inroads of these diseases are to be counteracted more care will have to be taken with the children. It is impossible to pass through the smallest village without seeing scores of children who have come into the world with a serious physical handicap, and in these days no nations can afford to be indifferent to these facts. As in England, there will have to be a closer co-operation between the Government, the medical missions, and philanthropic bodies, so that the young life of India may have a better chance in the battle it has to wage, and so enable India to hold a position worthy of her among the nations.

THE HEIR TO A GREAT NAME. With the death of the second Baron Lawrence the pension of two thousand pounds, granted by the India Office for two lives to his illustrious father, will come to an end, though India would not have grudged this small annuity had it been for several lives or indeed perpetual in the family of him who was acclaimed with one voice the saviour of India at the critical time of the Mutiny. But perpetual hereditary grants for even the most valuable services have gone out of fashion long ago, and the Dukes of Marlborough and only one of two other scions of great captains and admirals of the eighteenth century and earlier, are in receipt of such pensions for the services rendered long ago by their ancestors. Even the pension granted to the Great Duke of Wellington a hundred years ago was limited to three lives and has now lapsed by the demise of the third Duke. The pension which now lapses was originally granted at the close of the Mutiny and was only for this life of the first Baron or as he then was Sir John Lawrence. It was one of the last acts of the East India Company which soon after this recognition of its greatest servant expired. Ten years later when he had completed his term of Viceroyalty in India the Indian Council, the successors of the Court of Proprietors of the East India Company, by a special resolution converted this life annuity into a pension for the same amount of two thousand pounds for his own life and that of his successor in the title. At the same time a peerage was conferred by Queen Victoria on the recommendation of Gladstone who had just then begun his first great administration. This honour of a peerage at the very end of a most active and illustrious Indian career was, no doubt, hailed on all sides; but it was also felt that it was long his due. A peerage had been strongly recommended by Currie, the chairman of the Court of Proprietors, to the Ministry at the close of the meeting as the only fit honour for him. Lord Stanley, the Minister responsible for India, too, was inclined to concur. But Lord Derby, the Prime Minister, was not disposed just then to confer the higher honour and Lawrence got only a Baronetcy with a Privy Councillorship and the Grand Cross of the Bath. Only one peerage was created for Mutiny services and that went to Colin Campbell, the Commander-in-Chief throughout the struggle. The latter made Lord Clyde happened to meet Lawrence in London a year or two later, and asked him, 'By the way, John, did they ever offer you a peerage?' and remarked 'they ought to have made you a peer long before they made me.' But he had to wait ten years longer and to add to his services of saving India during the Mutiny, those of ruling it and reconstructing the administration disorganised by the crisis before he got the baronetcy. His baronetcy, too, conferred in 1858 came to him late. He had been thought worthy of it by Lord Dalhousie in 1855 for his services as head of the Punjab Administration. But the home authorities granted only the Bath, and that too the second class, for them. So had he died before the outbreak of the Mutiny he would have been only a K. C. B. Honours thus did by no means come fast to Lawrence but they came unsought, and he had the great satisfaction that his superiors and colleagues on the spot in India always thought him fit for higher honors than he received. It is of interest to us in Bombay to note that our Governorship was offered to him in 1860 when Lord Elphinstone resigned but he declined it and was only enticed by the higher offer of the Viceroyalty three years later to return to this country.

PEACE AMONG THE NATIONS. There is perhaps no question which is the subject of so many platitudinous expressions of hope than that of peace among the nations. The danger of a European war during the past twelve to eighteen months has been a very real one, and in view of the appeals and messages which have marked the inauguration of the Palace of Peace at the Hague, it is as well that the present position and prospect should be summed up. Unhesitatingly we think it can be said that quite apart from these expressions of hopes of peace, of which we are accustomed to hearing and reading, there are signs of a more generous attitude and less war-like rivalry between the nations. The Powers have not much to congratulate themselves upon in connection with the last Balkan war and its settlement, but they can take full pride in the fact that they were wise and restrained enough not to fall out among themselves and extend the red ruin of the Balkans into Europe. In the bringing about of this result, Britain can justly lay claim to a good share, and Mr. Bonar Law's tribute to Sir Edward Grey in mail week, following the latter's speech on the Balkan situation, was well deserved. The Unionist leader said: ". . . our main interest is to preserve the peace of Europe. In all that has happened the right hon. gentleman has played not only a part, but in this case almost a leading part...I think we have reason to congratulate him and the country..." Indeed, Mr. Law boldly affirmed that the danger of a European war had gone, and certainly there is a general feeling of relief in Europe that the crisis has passed. It is true that there is no relaxation in the burdening competition of armaments and that any increase in the programme of one country is promptly met by an increase in the programme of another, but out of this evil there is good, for it is just this general high standard of efficiency in armies and navies which has prevented one otherwise dominant Power from carrying out aggressive designs. Mr. Carnegie, in a speech at the Hague, argued that all that was required for the maintenance of the world's peace was an agreement between three or four of the leading Powers to co-operate against disturbers of peace; and he appealed to the Kaiser to celebrate the 25th anniversary of a peaceful reign by helping to bring about such an agreement. The suggestion is neither new nor very likely to be adopted—at least in the letter; but, nevertheless, it is an expression which voices the wish of the majority of the peoples of Europe, and it is in this wish that we see the hope of continued peace in the future and a better understanding among the nations.

AN UNLIKELY BOAST. There is no limit to the possibilities of what American reporters can do in the way of imaginary interviews, skilfully colouring and "faking" news, and generally misusing in a scandalous way, as compared with the English standard, the powers of the Press. Many a European celebrity, particularly from England, has suffered on arriving at New York, where it is the usual thing to be besieged by the enterprising spirits of the American dailies. Although it would be premature to say so for certain, it is very probable that Lord Haldane, who reached New York on Friday on his way to Montreal, has also been a victim, for Reuter tells us that he is represented as saying, when pressed by reporters for interviews, that England was able to transport troops round the world at a greater speed and with greater efficiency than any other nation. We cannot believe Lord Haldane would make such an indiscreet and provocative utterance, and if the interview is a fabrication it is a gross scandal that such a statement should be put into his mouth.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

THE BALKANS.

AUSTRIA'S ANGER.

KAISER AND GREECE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

PARIS, Aug. 16.

At the final meeting of the Peace Conference on Sunday morning the signatures of the delegates were appended to the treaty in alphabetical order, only the heads of the various Missions placing their seals to it. When this had been done the firing of salutes from the Bukarest forts announced that peace had been irrevocably concluded.

The following is a translation of the Treaty:—

"The King of Bulgaria on the one hand and the Kings of the Hellenes, Montenegro, Rumania, and Servia on the other, animated by the desire to put an end to the state of war at present existing between their five respective countries and wishing, in the interest of order, to establish peace between their long-tried peoples, resolved to conclude a definitive treaty of peace, and named their plenipotentiaries. (Here follows a list of delegates.)

An agreement having been happily reached, it was decided:—

Article I. Peace and amity shall exist between the King of the Bulgarians and the other Sovereigns, as also between their heirs and successors.

Article II. The Rumano-Bulgarian frontier, rectified in conformity with the annexe of Protocol 5, shall start from the Danube above Turtukai and terminate on the Black Sea, to the south of Akrania. It is formally agreed that Bulgaria shall dismantle within two years the existing fortifications at Rustchuk and Shumla, and in a zone of 12 1-2 miles round Balchik. A mixed commission shall within a fortnight mark out on the spot the new frontier and preside at the partition of the property intersected by the new frontier. In cases of disagreement an arbitrator shall decide as a last resort.

SERVIA'S NEW TERRITORY.

Article III. The Serbo-Bulgarian frontier, fixed in conformity with the annexe of Protocol 9, shall start from the old frontier of the Partarica mountain and follow the old Turco-Bulgarian frontier and the watershed between Vardar and the Struma, with the exception that the upper valley of the Strumnitza shall remain Servian. The frontier shall terminate at the mountain of Belasica where it will join the Greco-Bulgarian frontier. A mixed commission shall in a fortnight trace the new boundary and superintend the partition under arbitration of the property intersected by the new frontier.

Article IV. Is added as a postscriptum. It provides that questions relating to the old Serbo-Bulgarian frontier shall be settled in accordance with the agreement arrived at between the contracting parties in conformity with the annexed Protocol.

Article V. The Greco-Bulgarian frontier, fixed in conformity with Protocol 9, shall start from the new Serbo-Bulgarian frontier on the crest of the Belasica Planina and terminate at the mouth of the River Mesta, on the Ægean Sea. A mixed commission with arbitration is provided for as in the previous article. It is formally agreed that Bulgaria henceforth waives all claim to the island of Crete.

Article VI. The headquarters of the respective armies shall be informed of the signature of the treaty. The Bulgarian Government engages to begin demobilising on the day following the signature of peace. Troops, the garrison of which is situated in the zone of occupation of the belligerent army, shall be sent to some other point on old Bulgarian territory, and shall not return to their usual garrison until after the evacuation of the zone of occupation.

BULGARIAN DEMOBILISATION.

Article VII. The evacuation of Bulgarian territory shall begin immediately after the demobilisation of the Bulgarian army, and shall be completed within a fortnight.

Article VIII. During the occupation of Bulgarian territory the armies, while retaining the right of requisition in return for payment in cash, shall have the free use of the railways for transport and provisioning purposes without paying compensation to the local authorities. The sick and wounded are to be under the protection of the above armies.

Article IX. As soon as possible prisoners of war shall be mutually surrendered. The Governments will present a statement of direct expenses incurred in respect of the care and maintenance of prisoners.

Article X. The present treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications exchanged at Bukarest within a fortnight, or sooner if possible. In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries signed their names and affixed their seals.

AUSTRIA'S ANGER AROUSED.

The publication of telegrams exchanged between the Kaiser and the King of Rumania on the occasion of the signing of peace caused a veritable outburst of indignation in the Vienna Press, mingled with sarcastic criticisms of Count Berchtold's futile foreign policy. The "Neue Freie Presse" accuses the Kaiser of weaning Bulgaria's affections from Vienna to Berlin, and of seeking to destroy Austria's prestige in the Balkans. The "Neues Wiener Journal" repeats the accusation, and represents the Kaiser, with an absolute lack of consideration and a complete egoism, posing as the cordial friend of the Balkan countries, and one with whom they will do well to enter into commercial relations. The "Journal" remarks that Austria-Hungary is going the wrong path alongside Russia, a course which has lost her best friends without gaining new ones. It is a policy at once grotesque and inexplicable.

"Die Zeit" remarks that the rumours of divergent opinions in Berlin and Vienna regarding their Balkan policy are now entirely confirmed by the telegrams exchanged between the Emperor William and King Charles of Rumania.

TURKEY AND ADRIANOPLE.

On the occasion of Monday's weekly reception of Ambassadors the Grand Vizir communicated his verbal reply to the recent representations of the Powers, urging the Porte to observe the conditions of the Treaty of London with regard to the Enos-Midia line. The following is the official text of the reply made individually to the Ambassadors:—In reply to the declaration which your Excellency has been good enough to make in the name of your Government I hasten to assure you that the Imperial Government has constantly endeavoured, independent of all consideration, to conform with the principles laid down by the Treaty of London. Nevertheless, if it has not been found possible that the provisions with regard to the Enos-Midia line should be respected in the same way as the other provisions of the treaty the question is that the Imperial Government finds it an imperious obligation to intervene to prevent the systematic extermination of populations whose only fault is that they are on the other side of the Enos-Midia line.

It also finds it a not less imperious obligation to ensure a frontier line capable of guaranteeing the security of the capital and the Straits, and consequently of enabling normal and durable relations to be established between the neighbouring States.

With lively gratitude, I remark that in your declaration your Excellency admits the last necessity, for I allow myself to see in it a justification of the line of action followed by the Imperial Government. Trusting in their spirit of lofty equity, I firmly hope that the Great Powers will be good enough also to admit that the frontier line proposed by the Imperial Government in its communication of July 19 last is alone calculated to fulfil the desired conditions of security and durability.

BULGARIA'S DEFEAT.

In the Ukase ordering the demobilisation of the Bulgarian troops, King Ferdinand addresses the army as follows:—"Soldiers,—At a moment when you were going to return to your homes a fresh scourge descended upon us. Our allies, with whom we have fixed treaties, betrayed us and tried to snatch from us that which had been redeemed by the blood of tens of thousands of heroes. Indignant at this felony, the entire Bulgarian nation, from the Chief of the State to the last peasant and workman, could not resign themselves to this spoliation. No Bulgarian patriot could willingly and without a struggle renounce Monastir, Ochrida, Dibra, Pertepe, Salonika, Serres, and other Bulgarian districts where our race brothers dwell.

Provoked by former allies, we were compelled against our will once more to resume a difficult struggle. It would have been crowned with success had not a series of unforeseen political circumstances paralysed our strength. Pressed on all sides, we were obliged to sign the Treaty of Bukarest, our country not being in a condition to struggle with its five neighbours without risking the loss of everything. Exhausted and tired, but not conquered, we had to furl our glorious standards until better days. Glorious soldiers! Now that you are leaving the ranks of your heroic regiments, I consider it my sacred duty to express to you in the name of Bulgaria my cordial and profound gratitude for all the sacrifices, all the troubles, and all the sufferings that you have endured during this gigantic struggle. May God reward you for everything you have done. History and posterity will judge, appreciate, and inscribe in letters of gold how well you have deserved of the Fatherland. I desire that you should return safe and sound to your homes and devote yourselves with fresh force and energy to your peaceful occupations. "May the national liberty and well-being flourish around you. Tell your children and your grandchildren about the gallantry of the Bulgarian soldier, and prepare them to complete one day the glorious work that you have begun."

AUSTRIAN LOSS OF PRESTIGE.

Austria-Hungary's loss of prestige over the question of the revision of the Balkan Peace Treaty continues to excite considerable irritation in various quarters in Vienna. The semi-official journals have apparently received no cue in discussing the relations between Vienna and Berlin since Germany's action at the Bukarest Peace Conference became known; consequently they maintain a discreet silence. The "Neues Wiener Journal" alone declares that the exchange of telegrams between King Charles and the Kaiser is a political sensation, and indicates a breach in the historic Triple Alliance.

Bulgaria has commenced demobilisation, and it is to-day announced that large numbers of reservists now with the colours in Bosnia-Herzegovina and Dalmatia are to be disbanded in the next few days. On Thursday the decree signed by King Charles for the demobilisation of the Rumanian army comes into effect.

Immediately after the signature of peace King Charles telegraphed to the four Balkan Sovereigns. In his message to King Ferdinand, King Charles acknowledged the Bulgarian spirit of conciliation displayed in connection with the peace negotiations.

King Ferdinand, in reply, said:—"I desire to thank your Majesty for the cordial telegram addressed to me on the occasion of the act closing a tragic period in the history of my people, during which, after brilliant victories, it has experienced the cruellest trials and an accumulation of every misfortune. Henceforward we shall look to reinvigorating peace and strenuous labour to procure us oblivion of the past and preparations for a better future." At a banquet given to the peace delegates by the municipality of Bukarest Prince Cantacuzene, the mayor, in proposing the healths of the Sovereigns of Rumania and of the Balkan States, said they had known how to counterbalance the dash of glory and the victory of the moment by a wisdom and a moderation which would be very fruitful in the future. M. Venezelos then delivered a speech which may be said to have been a reply to the King's toast at the Royal banquet. "Thanks to Rumania," the Greek Prime Minister declared, "we have been able to conclude a peace which, since it perpetuates neither excesses nor injustice, must be looked upon as a lasting one. The great law of nations which wish to live free and prosperous, the law of balance, has found here a formula and an application both for the Near East and for Europe."

THE KAISER AND GREECE.

The "Kolnische Zeitung" publishes the following telegram from Berlin:—"The statement of the Bukarest correspondent of the 'Temps' regarding an alleged letter from the German Emperor to King Constantine of Greece, in which the Emperor is represented as having declared 'I am fighting for your rights like a tiger,' naturally lacks foundation. As a result of inquiries we learn that no such letter was written. The same may be said of the alleged autograph letter of the German Emperor to the Emperor Fran-

ULSTER UNIONISTS.

PREPARATIONS FOR RESISTING HOME RULE.

LONDON, Aug. 30.

The arrangements for the meetings of the Ulster Unionist Council in September were completed at Belfast yesterday, at a meeting attended by Lord Kilmorey, Lord Clanwilliam, a number of members of the House of Commons and others.

It was decided to hold a special meeting of the Ulster Unionist Council on September 24 and 25, in Ulster Hall. The Irish Unionist Parliamentary Party will meet on September 29 and there will also be a number of council meetings—all, it is understood, to deal with the establishment of a provisional Government should Home Rule become law.

It is announced that Mr. F. E. Smith will accompany Sir Edward Carson on the latter's visit to Ulster to speak to the demonstrations attended by the Ulster Volunteer Force.—Reuter.

THE BAGHDAD RAILWAY.

UNEXPECTED AND UNWELCOME DEVELOPMENT.

LONDON, Aug. 30.

Fears are beginning to be expressed of the possibility of the Franco-German negotiations regarding the Baghdad railway ending in the division of Asiatic Turkey into the so-called railway zones which could easily be transformed into spheres of political interest It is urged that it is the paramount interest, both of France and Britain, to avert anything of the kind as tending to the disintegration of Asiatic Turkey. —Reuter.

Gas is now in use in Bombay for gold melting, soap boiling, brazing and every conceivable purpose for which heat and power are required, since it is found the heat can be regulated to a nicety, impossible with solid fuel.

WORLD'S PEACE.

HOW IT CAN BE MAINTAINED.

MR. CARNEGIE'S APPEAL TO THE KAISER.

LONDON, Aug. 30.

Speaking at the unveiling of the bust of the late Sir Randal Cremer at the Palace of Peace, Mr. Carnegie argued that all that was required for the maintenance of the world's peace was an agreement between three or four of the leading Powers to co-operate against disturbers of the peace. He appealed to the Kaiser to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of a peaceful reign by inviting the chief civilised nations to confer to such an end.—Reuter.

LINKING UP THE EMPIRE.

NEW ZEALAND PREMIER'S SUGGESTION.

WELLINGTON, Aug. 29.

The party of British Members of Parliament, who are visiting New Zealand, were entertained at a banquet by the Government to-night. The Prime Minister affirmed the importance of Imperial statesmen visiting the Dominions. He suggested that an Imperial Conference should be held in the Dominions alternately.

Lord Emmott, responding, dwelt on the increasing usefulness of the Imperial Conferences.—Reuter.

COTTON STRIKE ENDED.

NO FURTHER STOPPAGE PENDING A CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Aug. 29.

STEAMER STILL AGROUND.

LONDON, Aug. 30.

The Admiralty announces that the salvage steamer finds that the "Clan Mackenzie" is still aground.—Reuter.

[This is a strange contradiction of what Reuter has already announced. The Port Captain of Gibraltar has reported that the "Clan Mackenzie," which went ashore near Cadiz in December last, while bound for Calcutta, was afloat and was drifting as a derelict westwards. The vessel was also represented as a danger to navigation. The "Clan Mackenzie" is a select boat of the Clan line for the conveyance of passengers and cargo from the east to Europe, and this divergence of opinion is to be regretted.]

HARRY THAW.

LAWYERS CONFIDENT THAT HE WILL BE DEPORTED.

LONDON, Aug. 31.

The lawyers continue their fierce struggle over the Thaw case. The advantage for the moment rests with the Chief of Police of Coaticock, who first arrested Thaw at the instance of the counsel for the State of New York. The Chief of Police has naw been granted a writ of Habeas Corpus, and has thus outwitted Thaw's counsel. New York lawyers are now confident that Thaw will be deported.—Reuter.

THE EMPIRE EXHIBITION.

INDIA'S INCLUSION ESSENTIAL TO SUCCESS.

LONDON, Aug. 29.

With reference to Press comments regarding the apparent omission of India from the scheme of the Imperial Exhibition, the exhibition authorities state that negotiations for a site are in progress and will be settled before the end of the year. After that, a deputation will go to India and possibly Egypt to arrange for their participation. The exhibition authorities regard India's inclusion as essential to the success of the project.

The Grand Council already includes Lord Hardinge, Lord Ampthill, Lord Lamington, Lord Curzon, Lord Kitchener, Sir James Dunlop Smith, Sir Hamilton Freer-Smith, Sir Philip Hutchins, Mr. C. E. Hobhouse, and Colonel C. E. Yate, M. P.

The authorities say it is impossible to send deputations to India and the Dominions until the site is settled owing to the uncertainty of the space it will be possible to offer each of them. The authorities emphasise the fact that every Dominion and Colony will have full control of its own section and will be represented on all the committees.—Reuter.

ESPIONAGE CHARGE.

ALLEGED SALE OF SECRETS TO AUSTRIA.

THE ATROCITIES.

CARNEGIE ENQUIRY TO BE ABANDONED.

LONDON, Aug. 31.

The Carnegie International Committee of Enquiry into the Balkan massacres has decided to abandon its task owing to objections raised by Servia and Greece on the ground that two of its members, namely, M. Miliukoff (Russia), and Mr. Brailsford (England), are well-known pro-Bulgarians; and also because the traces of atrocities have disappeared with the lapse of time.—Reuter.

CAWNPORE CASE.

CHARGES TO BE HEARD ON THURSDAY.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CAWNPORE, Aug. 30.

The hearing was postponed of the charges against the six injured accused in the riots case owing to their inability to attend the Court. The charges will be heard on Thursday next.

Counsel for the Crown intimated that in the ordinary course of events the sedition trial would begin on Monday.

Nazar Mohammad Khan, the well known Kabuli, was discharged.

A HIDE MERCHANT'S TROUBLE.

CAWNPORE, Aug. 31.

Yesterday evening, Hafiz Ahmed Ullah, a well-known hide merchant, who was arrested on August 3 in connection with the Machhli Bazar mosque riot and against whom the local authorities had applied for necessary sanction from the local Government for prosecution under section 124 (a) (sedition) and 153 (a) (inciting class hatred) was released from custody by the orders of Mr. H. M. Smith, additional District Magistrate of Cawnpore. It would appear that the local Government has refused the sanction applied for, as in the case of Ahmed Ullah.

It is not yet known whether the case against the other accused, Moulana Abdul Qadir and Azad Surham, will proceed to-morrow; but it is presumed from his being still kept in confinement that the local Government has given the necessary sanction in his case.

FLOOD BREACHES.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SUKKUR, Aug. 30.

The District Traffic Superintendent of the North-Western Railway telegraphs that transhipments of mails and passengers will be possible to-morrow and afternoon trains will get through on Monday afternoon.

SUKKUR, Aug. 31.

The Superintendent, telegraphing later, says that the breaches between Mithre and Lindsay have been repaired. The up-mails were transhipped from Billput to Lindsay with difficulty and danger. More transhipments of mails and passengers are not possible until the water subsides and some of the bad breaches are repaired. Through communication will probably be restored within four or five days.

TRIBAL WARFARE IN DIR.

MONEY MARKET.

A PERIOD OF STRAIN EXPECTED.

LONDON, Aug. 30.

At a meeting of the German Reichsbank, the Vice-President declared that the reduction of the bank rate was still impossible. Although the banks at present had bullion in deposit to the extent of nearly nine millions sterling above the total of August 1912, and in spite of the transfer of over a million to the war treasure. Germany had imported, hitherto, in 1913, eleven millions and exported two and a quarter millions. Before the bank rate was lowered, we must see whether the easiness of money was not merely temporary. He added that it looked as if there would be a period of strain at the end of September.—Reuter.

SELF-MADE GODS

STRANGE STORY OF MAHOMEDAN GANG.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, Aug. 30.

Some time ago a number of illiterate Mahomedans of Naraingunj in the Dacca district defied the Koran, and proclaimed themselves as gods They banded together and began to terrorise the villagers who failed to recognise their supernatural powers. The Sub Inspector of Raipur thana with several constables went to arrest them, but were beaten, and one constable was confined in a house. Subsequently twenty-seven of the Mahomedans were arrested. Yesterday the Sub-divisional Officer of Naraingunj framed charges against eight for rioting, wrongful confinement, and obstructing the police.

MALAD BAZAAR.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—With reference to the complaint of the weekly bazaar at Malad, which appeared in your issue of this morning. I beg to state that I fully concur with the views of your correspondent. Further, I wish to throw more light on the subject, viz., the Bazaar was kept out of the village for the last 15 years, when the first plague broke out in Malad, and I do not see any reason why it was removed in December, 1912, specially when the place is rather filthy and there is no proper accommodation for the buyers and sellers to move freely. To make matters worse, buyers from 15 villages fear very much to enter the village on account of nobody being in the village as well on account of infection.

As this is the only weekly bazaar for Malad and the surrounding villages for their 8 days' supplies, I earnestly ask the zealous Collector of Thana to move it on to some other place without any further delay until such time as the place is healthy again.—

Yours, etc.,

AN OBSERVER.

EXPLORATION OF CENTRAL ASIA.

SIR A. STEIN TO RESUME HIS WORK.

TERRITORIES UNTRODDEN BY A EUROPEAN.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

ALLAHABAD, Aug. 30.

Sir Aurel Stein has been deputed by the Government of India with the Secretary of State's sanction to resume archaeological and geographical explorations in Central Asia and westernmost China.

For his journey to the border of Chinese Turkistan on the Pamirs Sir Aurel Stein is taking on this occasion the route, which leads through the Darel and Tangir territories, which have not been previously visited by a European.

The Survey of India has deputed with Sir Aurel Stein his old companion, Rai Bahadur Lal Singh, and a second surveyor to assist him by topographical work.

[While the Italian expedition, strong in numbers and equipment, is starting on its way to the Roof of the World, says the Pioneer, an Anglo-Indian explorer, whose name is more familiar in this country, is about to renew his solitary and adventurous attacks upon the secrets of Central Asia. For his journey to the border of Chinese Turkistan on the Pamirs Sir Aurel Stein is taking on this occasion a route which offers special interest to the student of the geography and history of the Hindu Kush regions. It leads through Darel and Tangir, territories which have not been previously visited by a European, and which only recent political developments have brought under British influence. In Darel the traveller will find himself on the track of early Chinese Buddhist pilgrims who passed there on their way from the uppermost Oxus to the Indus and the North-West Frontier.]

CURRENT EASTERN NEWS.

Mr. Surendra Nath Banerjee yesterday opened the Swadeshi exhibition at Calcutta organised by Bengalee ladies, the management and control is entirely in the hands of ladies.

The approximate gross earnings of state and guaranteed railways for the period the 1st April to the 16th August last amounted to Rs. 20,76,10,000 as against Rs. 20,83,28,808 for the same period last year. There is thus a decrease in the earnings this year as compared with those of last year of Rs. 7,18,808, which is slightly less than last week's cumparative decrease.

Sir George Roos-Keppel, Chief Commissioner of the N. W. F. Province, on his departure on leave, was given a cordial send-off at Rawalpindi on Thursday. Three addresses were presented, one being jointly from Hindus and Mohomedans of his province, expressing gratitude for the peace and tranquillity that had been maintained both inside and across the border.

The last "Fort St. George Gazette" mentions a valuable find in the Nallore taluk. A Reddi employed in digging earth to build a wall with hit upon a copper vessel which contained gold coins, some of which he sold. In the course of his investigation, the Tahsildar deepened and extended the pit made by the Reddi, and unearthed three vessels one of copper and two earthern, which together contained 4,747 gold coins. The total value is set down approximately at Rs, 1,41,349 about £9,423.

The periodical visits to India of the directors of Indian railway companies at home which were recommended by the late Mr. Thomas Robertson, have now become an established custom. Among those who are expected this cold weather are Sir F. R. Upcot, chairman of the East Indian Railway Board, Mr. Dallas, vice-chairman of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Board, Mr. Huddleston, of the Nizam's Railway as well as of the Assam-Bengal Railway Board. Mr. Allen of the Bengal and North-Western Railway is already in India.

The report just issued of the Punjab text-book Committee, comparing the results of the year's work with that of the previous year, states that that the number of publications considered has risen from 581 to 641; that the numbrr of authors submitting books for consideration in connection with the Patronage of Literature Fund has risen from 41 to 49; that the number of books considered in connection with that fund has increased from 77 to 104; and that the amount spent on the purchase of books and apparatus for presentation to schools has increased from Rs. 5,142-6-5 to Rs. 6,682-4-3. The Patronage of Literature Fund was, of course, instituted to encourage the development of Vernacular Literature. Of the authors submitting books for consideration 24 wrote in Urdu, 10 in Hindi and 15 in Punjabi. Nineteen of these competitors were awarded prizes. The seven successful Urdu writers received Rs. 1,500; the seven Hindi authors Rs. 1,200; and the five Puniabi authors Rs. 800 Though the number of authors competing for prizes constitutes a record, the quality of the works submitted was, in the opinion of the Committee, poor; and special steps, we are told, have been taken to induce authors of standing to write and submit their works for consideration.

The law's delays in India are illustrated by a table in the Moral and Material Progress report which shows the average duration of contested suits during 1911. The period varies greatly in the different provinces. In Bombay it averaged 419 days, but it is explained that this figure is much higher than that for previous years. In 1911 the corresponding figure for Bombay was 177 days; in Bengal, during 1911, the average duration of contested suits was 249 days; in Eastern Bengal and Assam 182; in Madras 257; in the Central Provinces and Berar 193; in Agra 88: in Oudh 71; in the Punjab 45; in the North-West Frontier Province 33; in Upper Burma 61; and in Lower Burma 87. Uncontested suits last, roughly speaking, about half as long. The chief causes of delay are stated to be the non-service of notices, and the rule allowing a litigant a year within which to apply for fresh notice.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

HIGH COURT.

APPLICATION FOR REVISION.

Before Mr. Justice Heaton and Mr. Justice Shah, Mokundas Kisandas, a Marwari, applied for a revision of the order passed by Mr. A. E. L. Emanuel, District Magistrate of Kolaba.

Mr. S. S. Patker, Government pleader, was for the Crown, while Mr. J. Baptista, barrister, with Mr. D. A. Khare, pleader, were for the applicant, and Mr. Gharpure was for the complainant.

It was stated that one Damoder Narher Pranjpe filed a complaint against the petitioner and three others of an offence under Section 409 Indian Penal Code in the Court of the City Magistrate of Ahmednagar in 1909. The magistrate discharged the complaint, so Damoder applied to the Sessions Judge who also rejected his application. The petitioner hearing that a similar proceeding had been filed to the District Magistrate at Kolaba, applied for a copy of the proceedings which was not given.

The District Magistrate issued a summons to the petitioner under Section 94 Criminal Procedure Code to produce before an investigating police officer a receipt for Rs. 12,000, dated July 3, 1904. The petitioner having failed to do so, Mr. Emanuel sentenced him under Section 485 Criminal Procedure Code to four days' simple imprisonment from July 13, 1913, unless he should before those four days were ended produce the required receipt.

The petitioner, therefore, prayed that the order under Section 94 may be quashed and also prayed that the present complaint order may be dropped.

After hearing arguments of counsel, their Lordships delivered the following judgment:—

In this case we think that the magistrate was authorised to issue a summons under Section 94 Criminal Procedure Code, but we think he was not authorised to make the order he did under Section 485, and we annul that order. What happened was that the applicant was directed to produce a document. He then asked to be allowed ten days on the ground that it could not be produced without a joint receipt for himself and another person and on the further ground of putting certain considerations before the magistrate the ten days' time was allowed. On the expiration of ten days the applicant put the further consideration before the magistrate, and the magistrate held that it was reasonable to grant still further time for the production of the document. On July 3, 1913, he made an order as follows, "The application is rejected and under Section 485 Criminal Procedure Code, the applicant is sentenced for four days' simple imprisonment from July 13, 1913, unless he shall produce before those four days conclude the document required." We think that in a case like this, Section 485 only empowers a magistrate to convict a person who has definitely refused to do the thing and does not empower him to order to be committed to prison a person who still has time within which to obey. If, as we gather, the magistrate's intention was that the applicant was to have a further time within which to produce the document he should have been allowed that time. Moreover I am not satisfied from what the record discloses, that the excuse offered by the applicant was not a reasonable excuse. If what he says is true it may be that the excuse is reasonable. It does not appear that the magistrate positively disbelieved the excuse. We hardly think that he would be likely to do so. Without putting some further questions to the applicant or ascertaining some more facts relative to the whereabouts of the documents, the order is set aside and the magistrate is directed should he be so minded to continue these proceedings according to law.

SECRETARY OF STATE SUED.

A case was disposed of by Mr. Justice Beaman on Saturday, in which Pranjiwandas Shivlal sued the Secretary of State for India and another.

Mr. R. D. N. Wadia appeared for the plaintiff, while the Advocate-General represented the first defendant and Mr. Mulla appeared for the second defendant.

In this suit the plaintiff prayed for a declaration that he should be entitled to recover the value of a Government promissory note for Rs. 5,000, when it became due, and for interest on a note already due. Also that the Secretary of State might be ordered to issue a duplicate note on his being indemnified against the claims of the second defendant or any other person claiming it.

The plaintiff stated that Bai Suraj, the second defendant, was possessed of a Government promissory note for Rs 5,000 issued to the Bank of Bengal. This issue had been converted by enforcement to 2 1-2 per cent. and stood in the name of Bai Suraj. She died in 1898 and letters of administration were granted to the present plaintiff. He asked the brother of Bai Suraj to deliver up the note, but he refused. He then asked the Public Debt Office to issue a duplicate but was refused.

This suit was taken up on Tuesday as a Short Cause, when the Advocate-General raised several issues and so it was postponed till Saturday.

When the case was taken up on that day, Counsel for the plaintiff informed the Court that the plaintiff wanted to withdraw the suit as he was going to file it again as a fresh suit.

The Court granted the order and ordered the plaintiff to pay the cost of the second defendant.

DISPUTE AMONG BORAHS.

Judgment was delivered in the suit filed by Esmailji Mulla Vallibhoy against Essaji Moosaji and twenty-three others by Mr. Justice Macleod on Saturday.

Mr. Jafferbhoy Rahimtulla, with Mr. Peerbhoy, instructed by Messrs. Payne and Co. appeared for the plaintiff. The Hon. Mr. Setalvad with Mr Desai, instructed by Messrs. Jehangir and Seervai, defended the first defendant, while Mr. Talyarkhan with Mr. Davar, instructed by Messrs. Surajmal and Co., and Messrs. Motichand and Devidas, represented the defendants Nos 2 A to 11 and 24. The facts of the case have already been reported.

After recording the evidence his Lordship delivered judgment, in which the agreements were held to be binding and the Commissioner was asked to take accounts on the basis of those agreements. The first defendant was asked not to appear before the Commissioner.

The conveyance to defendant No. 24 of the Elphinstone Road property was ordered to be set aside.

A DEAL IN COTTON.

Harnandrai Fulchand, a firm, sued Chadjoo Ram and Sons for the recovery of Rs. 12,247 with interest thereon, the hearing of which came up before Mr. Justice Beaman on Saturday.

The Advocate-General with Mr. R. D. N. Wadia and Mr. Moos, instructed by Messrs. Mody, Hiralal and Ranchodas were for the plaintiffs; while Mr. Jardine with Mr. Desai instructed by Messrs. Payne and Co., defended.

The plaintiffs are merchants and shroffs carrying on business in Bombay. Since October, 1910, at the request of the defendants they had acted as shroffs, commission agents and pukka adatias of the defendants in Bombay, and they sold and bought cotton on behalf of the defendants. The plaintiffs, from time to time, made up accounts of the dealings with the defendants' deputy under whose supervision they used to do business and handed over to him detailed accounts of such dealings. The plaintiffs forwarded to the defendants a copy of the ledger account of the defendants showing a balance of Rs. 11,718 due by the defendants to the plaintiffs for principal and interest. The defendants then raised dispute with the object of compelling the plaintiffs to abandon a part of their claim and opened negotiations with the plaintiffs for settlement. The negotiations, however, failed.

The plaintiffs, therefore, prayed that the defendants be ordered to pay to them the sum claimed.

Chadjoo Ram submitted in his written statement that he is the sole person interested in the firm of Chadjoo Ram and Sons. The suit was improperly brought against a firm in which there was one partner. He denied that the plaintiffs acted as his "pakka adatias." They were only commission agents. He had had dealings with the plaintiffs prior to October, 1910. The accounts had not been settled or adjusted since October, 1909. The defendant denied several allegations and accordingly counterclaimed and prayed that the whole account of the dealings of the plaintiffs as his agent might be taken, when it would be found that the defendant was not indebted to the plaintiffs as alleged, but on the contrary the plaintiffs would be found to be indebted to him.

The case is proceeding,

POLICE COURTS.

PARTNER'S DUPLICITY.

Mr. A. H. S. Aston, Chief Presidency Magistrate, disposed of a case, on Saturday, at the Esplanade Police Court, in which Sub-Inspector Barodia at the instance of one Gokuldas charged one Kushal Keshowji with criminal breach of trust in respect of a sum of Rs. 87.

The facts of the case are that the accused and the complainant carried on a piece-goods business under the name of Gokuldas Rutonsing and Co. in Mulji Jetha Market. The business was afterwards wound up and the complainant found certain discrepancies in the accounts and placed the matter in the hands of the Criminal Investigation Department. In their investigation the C.I.D. found that a sum of Rs. 87 which had been paid by one of the customers had been misappropriated by the accused.

The accused admitted the charge and pleaded guilty. The magistrate sentenced him to one day's simple imprisonment and a fine of Rs 120 out of which Rs. 87 was ordered to be paid to the complainant.

COMMITTED TO THE SESSIONS.

Private Dawson, of the Sherwood Foresters, who was charged by Inspector Morris of the Criminal Investigation Department with criminal breach of trust in respect of a sum of 13s 4d. has been committed by Mr. A. H. S. Aston, Chief Presidency Magistrate, to stand his trial at the next High Court Criminal Sessions. The facts of the case have already been reported.

OPIUM-EATER FINED.

On the Byculla Railway station the excise sepoy searched the luggage of a Pardeshi passenger as he arrived from Allahabad and, leaving the platform on Friday morning, he found in his possession two and a half tolas of opium The Pardeshi was charged before Rao Bahadur Chunilal H. Setalvad, Second Presidency Magistrate, with importing opium without a license. He pleaded guilty and said he was an opium-eater and had brought the stuff for his personal use.

The magistrate fined him Rs. 15.

AMBULANCE CHALLENGE SHIELD.

General Haji Hafiz Obeidullah Khan, C.S.I., Bhopal Imperial Service Lancers, has signified his intention of presenting a handsome ambulance challenge shield to the Indian Council of the St. John Ambulance Association for competition among the the units of the St. John Ambulance Brigade in India and Burma. As many of our readers are doubtless aware, there is already a handsome challenge cup for competition amongst the Brigade, which was won by the Oudh and Ruhilkhand Railway Corps last February. In future, this cup will be awarded to the runners-up in the competition. The work of the St. John Ambulance Association and that of the Brigade are quite distinct from each other. The former body is simply and solely a teaching body, whilst the latter consists of men and women who have enrolled themselves with the purpose of combining individual efforts for the benefit of the public when occasions arise.

The presentation of the First Aid and Nursing Certificate under the auspices of the Bombay Presidency Centre of the St. John Ambulance Association was held on Saturday evening at 5 p. m. at the Elphinstone High School Hall, with Dr. W. Nunan, acting Honorary Secretary, Bombay Presidency Centre, in the chair. Mr. Darasha N. Marker, the Honorary Secretary and Superintendent, read the report for the past half year. The report was one of satisfactory progress, but the Secretary regretted the difficulty regarding finances, and stated that much more could have been accomplished if more money had been forthcoming. Mrs. Nunan then distributed the certificates. The chairman brought the proceedings to a close in a short speech, in which he expressed the hope that the good work of the brotherhood would be better appreciated by the public and that subscriptions would be forthcoming to carry on this humanitarian work.

CRICKET.

BOMBAY GYMKHANA "A" TEAM vs. PARSI GYMKHANA.

The return match between the above teams was played on Saturday afternoon on the Bombay Gymkhana ground, when the Parsis again proved victorious by 7 wickets. It was an ideal afternoon for cricket, the pitch being absolutely dry and the weather all that could be desired.

The outstanding feature of the game was the admirable—one might say uncanny—placing of his field by Doctor Pavri. Hardly a single ball went up into the air in any direction of the field, but a fielder was there to receive it. This generalship, if nothing else, fully entitles the Doctor to lead his team in the Quadrangular Matches this month.

Chothia and Naoroji, both young players, made an excellent stand of 94 against the rather poor bowling of the home side, and after the match was won S. F. Mulla treated the spectators to a display of "fireworks", hitting two sixes and 4 fours out of a score of 34. Kanga bowled exceedingly well, securing 7 wickets for 29 runs.

Winning the toss, the home side sent in Phillips and Watts to the bowling of Kanga and Vajifdar.

THE GAME.

Phillips opened in promising style driving Kanga twice to the boundary, but was out l. b. w. to tha last ball of the over. In his next over Kanga bowled what appeared to be almost a full pitch to Watts, who swung at and missed it being clean bowled (9-2-1). Christie, the old Bombay player, next partnered Bowes-Lyon, and neatly put Kanga to leg for 3 bringing up the first decade. A hot shot by the same player was smartly fielded by Kanga in the next over. Twenty went up with a leg hit to the boundary by Christie who was shaping very well indeed. Bowes-Lyon then drove Vajifdar straight to the boundary behind the bowler. Some very smart fielding by S. Mulla and Naoroji prevented the score from rising rapidly, as no less than 4 balls were stopped just on the boundary. Christie then opened his shoulders and nearly lifted Vajifdar over the northern boundary. Chothia now replaced Kanga, and Bowes-Lyon drove his first delivery with lightning speed to the off-boundary and repeated the stroke off the last ball of the over, bringing 40 on the score-board. The next decade soon went up and Christie in attempting a big hit skied the ball and was nearly caught at cover, the ball falling just out of reach of the fielder. Next over, however, Christie did not quite get hold of a ball and skied it behind the bowler where Kanga safely negotiated the catch (52-3-19). The retiring batsman played a bright and interesting innings but appeared to be in too great a hurry to score. Sprott (senior) was next in and at once put Chothia neatly away to the leg-boundary.

Sixty was notched by a straight drive for 4 by Bowes-Lyon who was hitting with great power.

EXCELLENT BOWLERS.

Both bowlers were keeping an excellent length with the result that the next 10 consisted of singles.

Pavri, the Parsi skipper, then took charge of the leather from the northern end and "yorked" Sprott with his third ball (72-4-10).

It took exactly an hour to run up this score, which was very moderate considering it was a fast wicket. Reid next partnered Bowes-Lyon and opened his account with a single off the Doctor. A very confident appeal for a catch behind the wickets against Bowes-Lyon was disallowed by the umpire. Mulla, the wicket-keeper, in his joy, threw the ball wildly up in the air, but the umpire disappointed him. Next over Bowes-Lyon lifted a ball from Pavri into the long field where it was safely held by Vajifdar (77-5-35). Bowes-Lyon played an excellent innings and gave no chances. He is evidently at the top of his game just now and his claims for inclusion in the team, selected for the Quadrangular fixtures, surely deserve every consideration.

Sprott (junior) was next in, and Reid brought up 80 with a vigorous cut off Pavri. Chothia now gave way to Kanga from the Gymkhana end, and the first ball brought about Reid's dismissal, being caught by the bowler (84-6-9). Bunbury took his place at the wickets but was clean-bowled by a fast one from Kanga, without any further addition to the score. The usual rot seemed to have set in with a vengeance and Sanderson, the new batsman, was nearly bowled first ball. Ninety went up with a couple of boundary drives by Sprott off Pavri. A tremendous drive by Sanderson was well held by S. Mulla on the boundary line (94-8-1). With an addition of 3 runs, Kanga, after sending down a few fast ones, varied his pace and with a slow off-break completely beat Elliott who played the ball in a very undecided manner (97-9-2).

THE CENTURY.

The century went up with a drive to the leg boundary by Sprott, who, in attempting to hit Kanga next over, was caught in the long field by Naoroji and the innings closed for 104 after an hour and a half's play. The Parsis commenced their innings at 4-15, and early met with disaster, Pavri being cleanbowled by Phillips' first ball (0-1-0). Vafifdar joined Naoroji and scored a single off the last ball of the over. Turning to Elliott he despatched him twice to the boundary, the first being due to slack fielding by Bowes-Lyon, and the second was a slow full-pitch. Next over Elliott had his revenge in catching Vajifdar off his own bowling. It was a tremendous drive and Elliott held it magnificently left hand. It was some time before the spectators could realise that the catch had been held, so hot was the return (11-2-10). Mulla was next, and at once adopted hitting tactics, putting one ball over the Gymkhana boundary and another to leg for 4 bringing 20 on the score board. Naoroji followed suit and pulled Phillips to the leg-boundary. Mulla then brought up 30 with a tremendous drive to the on-boundary. It was evident Mulla was going to play his old game, and so the field was spread out, with the result that he was caught next over near the on-boundary by Rennick. (53-3-15). P. D. Chothia took his place at the wickets and opened his account with a vigorous drive to the off-boundary off Elliott, and followed this by treating Phillips in a similar fashion.

CHANGE IN BOWLING.

A double change was now tried in the bowling, Rennick taking charge of the leather from the Gymkhana and Sprott from the northern end. Fifty went up after half an hour's play. Sprott (junior) was unfortunate in his first over as an easy chance behind the wickets by Chothia was dropped. Taking advantage of this mistake Chothia hit Sprott for 5 runs and Naoroji followed with a leg-boundary, bringing up 60 on the board. A smart piece of fielding by Watts nearly resulted in Naoroji being run out. The latter then very neatly glanced a rising ball from Sprott to the leg-boundary, and facing Rennick drove him to the off-boundary, Bowes-Lyon letting the ball through his fingers. A full pitch in the same over was pulled by Naoroji to the leg boundary and 80 was signalled. The bowling was atrocious, a choice selection of full pitches, long hops and leg balls being served up to the batsmen.

Watts was now tried from the Gymkhana end and 13 runs were scored off his first over, bringing up the century after 45 minutes' play. Phillips went on again from the northern end and sent down a maiden over. The winning hit was made by Naoroji at 5-15, the Parsi Gymkhana thus winning by 7 wickets. For the winners Naoroji had made 41 and Chothia 35 by good cricket, assisted chiefly by the very poor bowling. As there was plenty of time and light for play the game was continued until 228 was scored.

BOMBAY GYM. "B" TEAM vs. SHERWOOD FORESTERS.

The "B" Team continued its successes by defeating the Sherwood Foresters by 65 runs on Saturday at Marine Lines. For the winners, Sale, Kennedy, Keene and Cass obtained double figures. The last named, in particular, hitting very vigorously, got 3 sixes in succession and 6 fours. Ruck hit the ball three times in one over and retired with 18 to his credit.

Byford was top scorer for the losers and made 29, including 5 fours. He had an off day with the leather, and only got 3 wickets for 39. Sale for the Gymkhana did much better and claimed 6 wickets for 46.

WEATHER IN INDIA.

DISTURBANCE IN THE BAY DEVELOPS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, Aug. 30.

A further development of the disturbance in the Bay has taken place and a cyclonic storm is shown this morning within a few miles of False Point. It will probably cross the coast to-day, and move either to west or north-west.

The rainfall has been nearly general in Burma, Orissa and Chota Nagpur; fairly general in Assam, Lower Bengal and the south-west Punjab; local in the eastern half of the Central Provinces, the west coast and the north Madras coast. A few falls have also occurred in Bihar, the United Provinces and southeast Madras.

Principal amounts:—Mergui, Akyab and Toungoo, one and a half inches; Moulmein, three; Rangoon and Bassein, two; Minbu one; Cherrapunji, six; False Point, three; Cuttack, one; Sambalpur, two; Benares, one and a half; Mukteswar, one; Montgomery, three-quarters; and Gopalpur, one.

Forecast:—Further increase in rainfall in northeast of the Peninsula

FORECAST OF INCREASED RAINFALL IN THE NORTH.

SIMLA, Aug. 31.

The disturbance from the Bay crossed the coast yesterday evening, it has its centre this morning to the west of Gopalpur. It is giving heavy rain only in the immediate neighbourhood of the centre. The Arabian Sea current remains very weak.

Rainfall has been nearly general in Burma, Bihar and Orissa; fairly general in the west United Provinces, the eastern half of the Central Provinces; local in Assam, Bengal, Punjab, Kashmir and the west coast. A few falls also occurred in the east United Provinces and in east Madras.

The chief amounts of rainfall are:—Victoria Point, Kyaukpyu and Thayetmyo, two inches; Bassein, one; Mandalay, one and a half; Balasore, three; Chaibassa, one; Gaya and Mainpuri, one and a half; Mukteswar, one; Lyallpur, a half; Murree and Jubbulpore, two; Jagdalpur, and Gopalpur, four.

Forecast:—Increase of rainfall in northern half of the peninsula.

B.B. & C.I. AND R.M. RAILWAY ZOROASTRIAN ASSOCIATION.

The report of the Association says that although there were during the year under report 4 more than in the previous one, Rs. 9,750 were paid as benefits, it is satisfactory to note that Rs. 3,867-12-4 were placed to the credit of the Reserve Fund, bringing the total up to Rs. 83,402-0-4.

(2) Since 1906 the year in which a new life was given to the Association by Major A. D. G. Shelley, R.E., the sympathetic Agent of the Railway Company in India, and his equally sympathetic and able Assistants representing various Departments by kindly allowing members subscriptions to be deducted through paysheets, and Fund has made a very satisfactory progress, as from the following analysis, which speaks for itself :—

After paying benefits of Rs. 36,850 within the period of 6 years, the carrying over of Rs. 32,978 to the Reserve Fund is a matter of great satisfaction. The most detrimental step calculated to ruin the Association was the rapid increase in the number of "Defaulters", which went as high as 214 till 1906, i.e., 11.88 per year; but thanks to Major Shelley and other Heads of Departments whose assistance was invaluable in bringing down the figure to only 10 in the past 6 years, i.e., 1.66 per year, and it is this circumstance that has placed the Association in a sound and prosperous condition in which it finds itself at present.

Of the 11 deaths recorded, 8 occurred among retired members, and from the death-rate given under para. 5 of the report it will be seen that 6 members died at advanced ages varying from 64 to 80; this shows that they lived a long time after their compulsory retirement from railway service between the ages of 55 and 60. About 8 years ago it was brought to the notice of the Managing Committee that many of the retired members were unable to pay their monthly subscriptions. It was, therefore, resolved at the General Meeting, held in June, 1908, to defer collecting subscriptions from certian old and retired members subject to certain conditions. This measure, however, failed to alleviate their grievance, and from time to time those in distressed conditions urged upon the Managing Committee to adopt some such measures as would give them some substantial relief in this direction. While this subject was under their consideration, last year the Trustees during their visit to a few places came across half a dozen cases of retired employees at one place only, who besides their infirmities were seen to be in want even of the bare necessities of life. Besides, at the last year's Annual Meeting as the general feeling seemed to be in favour of a movement towards an ameliorative measure, the Managing Committee appointed a sub-committee which after considering the subject in all its bearings, recommended the following proposals :—

1. That when a member has paid up subscriptions equivalent to 90 per cent. of the amount of the benefit due to him, he is exempted from paying any further subscriptions. Generally this condition is fulfilled after 25 years from the date of joining the Association.

2. That when a member has paid up subscriptions equivalent to 81 per cent. of the amount of the benefit due to him and he benig poor applies to the Managing Committee to allow him to pay half the monthly subscriptions, he will be allowed to do so on condition that he continues to pay the monthly subscription till his total subscription amounts to 95 per cent. of the amount of the benefit due to him.

3. That when a member after paying up 72 per cent. of the amount of benefit due to him applies to the Managing Committee to exempt him from paying further subscription on account of his poverty and on account of having no means to earn any thing, the Managing Committee will, after due investigation of the facts, grant his request on condition that after his death the amount of subscriptions so suspended may be recovered from his benefit, provided that the total amount of his subscription may not at any time be in excess of the amount of the benefit due to him. Pursuant to the resolution passed at the last General Meeting the votes of members of the Association in this matter were for the first time taken by means of voting papers, and the proposals carried.

In submitting the above recommendations the sub-committee were alive to the fact that in giving effect to them a portion of the Reserve Fund would have to be absorbed, as when the Fund was started the Parsi employees of all ages then in active service were invited to join, and naturally a large death-rate was expected within the next 10 years owing to the number of aged members now on the register. This question aroused a keener discussion among the members of the sub-committee who being acquainted with the condition of the Fund and so reluctant to use up any sum from it, still expressed themselves in favour of the change sought for, for the reason that at a time when the Fund was in a dying state and badly needed support the old members stood by and thus aided it by continuing their membership, and it would, therefore, be ungenerous to ignore these facts now when they most need help, and refuse them some concession which they are entitled to, and which, if not granted, would have but resulted in their compulsory withdrawal and loss of the benefits after putting in their subscriptions for 24 years.

More than often the Managing Committee had noted with regret the paucity of the members of the Traffic Department who had for one reason or other refrained from joining the Fund. But on the present occasion the Managing Committee have the pleasure to announce that, through the good advice of Mr. Framji Edalji Dharwar, Station Master Grant Road, the majority from amongst the young employees of all Departments of whom as many as 55 come from the Traffic Department alone, have joined the Fund—an incident worth noting in the history of the Association in as much as the total number of the new members who have enlisted during the year is 77, making it a record year for the highest number of new members enrolled in one single year has been 37 in 1901. The Managing Committee hope that the abolition of the old rules requiring a member to pay his subscription all throughout his life which acted as a deterrent to the enlistment of new members, will be a sufficient inducement to the younger employees to join the Fund at an early age.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

cis Joseph, in which, according to the 'Russkoe Slovo,' the Emperor William sought to use his influence to pave the way to an improvement in the relations between Austria-Hungary and Servia by a change in Count Berchtold's policy. It may further be stated that the version published in Vienna of the telegram from Charles to the German Emperor, which differed from that made public in Germany, is apocryphal. The text of King Charles's telegram was correctly given out by the German semi-official agency."

AUSTRIA AND RUSSIA.

M. Take Jonescu, the Rumanin Minister of the Interior, interviewed at Aix-les-Bains by a representative of the "Temps," expressed the conviction that the Treaty of Bukarest would not only not be revised, but would last longer than would appear likely from the present opposition to it. The declarations of Austria and Russia, added the Minister, had resulted in relieving the situation for the Bulgarian Government, but to obtain the revision of the treaty, the unanimity of the Powers, and an agreement as to the coercive measures would be necessary. Such unanimity did not, however, exist.

There is no ground (Reuter's Agency learns) for the statement emanating from Vienna that there has been a change in Russia's attitude with regard to the Treaty of Bukarest. The Russian Government has not yet completed its examination of the Kavalla question and other points raised by the treaty, and until its decision has been made known it is premature to speak of any change of attitude. The report is thought to be primarily intended for Bulgarian consumption. As regards the Turco-Bulgarian frontier, Russia maintains the view which she has firmly held from the beginning, namely, that the Enos-Midia line must be respected, and Adrianople must revert to Bulgaria. The steps that it may be necessary to take to secure this object are still under consideration.

The "statement" above referred to was published by the "Neues Wiener Tagblatt," which declared that Russia was not so strongly inclined to insist on revision of the treaty. The journal went on to say :—"There is no foundation for the inferences drawn from this that Austria-Hungary, finding herself isolated in her efforts to do something on behalf of Bulgaria, has relinquished her intentions in this direction. We are rather under the impression that Austria-Hungary, faithful to the policy hitherto adopted of working for the establishment of permanent peace in the Balkans, will consistently continue her efforts to prevent an excessive humiliation of Bulgaria."

SPEECH BY THE KAISER.

Replying to an address by the Burgomaster of Lubeck in the Rathaus, the Emperor delivered a speech in the course of which he said : "I protect the merchant. His enemy is my enemy, and may God grant that German trade may develop in time of peace under His protection in the future as in the past.

"A united German Fatherland and the German Empire have now risen again, and with it, of course, the old tasks, too. I believe that we have made a good step forward, and I consider it my duty to take up these old tasks again. That these tasks have been once more understood so rapidly and carried out in such an amazing way in the whole world, this the merchant can rightly put down to his credit, as also the fact that the old Hansa city, animated by the old Hensa spirit, have marched in the vanguard I should like to express my thanks to the merchant for the cities on the North German coast having stepped in in such an unparalled spirit of fraternity and daring in order to ensure to German trade, German industry, and German productions that place in the world for which other States may envy us. What can be done, both now and in the future, shall be done in order to bestow on the German merchant, who animated by the Hansa spirit, is representing Germanism abroad, and is working for Germany, the necessary strengthening and the necessary protection, so that he may keep his proper place in the sun." In a second speech at a banquet in the Burgesses' Hall of the Rathaus, His Majesty said : "May the old Hansa city Lubeck ever remembar its old motto, "It is easy to tie the flag on the pole, but it costs a lot to bring it down again with honour.'"

INDIAN CROP PROSPECTS.

BIHAR AND ORISSA SUGAR-CANE.

The preliminary forecast of the sugarcane crop of Bihar and Orissa, 1913, reads:—[On an average of the five years ending 1911-12 the area under sugarcane in the territory to which this forecast relates represents about 11·6 per cent. of the total area under the crop in British India.]

Character of the season.—Sugarcane is cultivated chiefly in Bihar. Outside Bihar the crop is important in Manbhum and Hazaribagh. The weather conditions have been favourable so far. Planting began generally at the normal time and the present condition of the crop is, on the whole, good.

Area planted.—The area planted with sugarcane this year is estimated at 257,100 acres against 266,100 acres of last year. The total normal area under the crop in this province is reported to be 257,800 acres.

Outturn.—From the statement appended it will be seen that Darbhanga and Sambalpur expect a crop of 110 and 115 per cent. respectively. Saran, Bhagalpur and Puri report a crop of 108 per cent. Shahabad, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, the Santal Parganas, Cuttack, Balasore, Angul, Hazaribagh, Ranchi and Palamau report a normal crop, viz., 100 per cent. Five districts report crops between 92 and 93 per cent., while Purnea anticipates a crop of 83 per cent. only.

According to the estimates of District Officers, the outturn of the sugacane crop for the province works out to 101 per cent. of the normal. But in view of the favourable weather conditions I am of opinion that the crop will not fall short of 105 per cent. The estimate for the last year's crop was 100 per cent.

Other sources of gur.—The quantity of gur produced from other sources, such as date-palm and palmyra-palm, is insignificant in this province.

The Urdu leaflet headed "Zamima-e akhbar-e-Tauhid, Merath-Kaho Takbir" i. e., "Supplement to the newspaper, Tauhid of Meerut—Recite the Takbir", being a speech delivered on August 8, at the Jama Mosque, Meerut, by Maulavi Khaja Hasan Nizami of Delhi, has been proscribed.

BRIEF AND PITHY.

RAILWAY IRONY.

The permanent way had evidently been badly laid, for the carriages swung from side to side and the passengers jolted up and down. One of the sufferers remarked on this to a fellow-passenger, who explained it differently : "This is the only line in England where they use square wheels."

HUMOUR AND THE PULPIT.

Professor Strong, writing in the "Academy" on Scottish humour, says the minister is more free than the clergyman in the south to vary the nature of the service in his church.

This freedom is sometimes fortunate for him, as in the following instance. The minister of a small country parish, on arriving at his church, found that he had thoughtlessly left his sermon behind him at the manse. The congregations were all assembled, and he was taken aback. An idea suddenly struck him. He summoned John, the beadle—a most important functionary—and directed him to give out to the congregation the 119th Psalm, which they might sing while he hurried back for his sermon. On his way back he saw the faithful beadle waving his arms and beckoning him to hurry on. On reaching the door he exclaimed: "Are they still singing, John?" "Ay, sir," replied John, "they're at it yet, but they are all cheeping like sparries." The beadle aids the minister with moral reflection and comments, sometimes reminding us of the functions of the Chorus in old Greek drama.

A young minister, after preaching his first sermon in his new parish, requested the beadle to give him his opinion of that discourse. To his mortification, he received the chilling reply: "Weel, sir, I'm thinkin' ye will be no fashed to get yon trash aff yer stomach."

FORGOT IT WAS SUNDAY.

A Glasgow grocer has had to pay a fine of 7s. 6d. because he forgot it was Tuesday afternoon, and sold some provisions to a customer.

It may seem surprising that a shopkeeper should forget the days of the week, but it has happened (says the "Glasgow News"). One Sunday, some time ago, an East-Ender was walking up a street in Bridgeton about 8 a. m., when he was surprised to find his favourite howff open, and the publican scattering sawdust on the floor, evidently preparing for a rush of customers seeking their "morning."

"Hullo!" he said; this is something new. Has the law been changed?".

What do you mean?" asked Boniface.

"Why! Opening your shop on Sunday."

"Great Scott!" gasped the publican, "I thought it was a week day," and the door was shut in record time, while the owner breathed a prayer of thanks that no policeman had appeared on the scene.

NATURAL ADVANTAGES.

Robert Lowe, afterwards Lord Sherbrooke, says the "Argonaut," once saw a deaf member of Parliament trying his best to catch with his ear-trumpet the words of an extremely dull speech. "Just look at that foolish man," said Lowe, "throwing away his natural advantages."

COMPOSER'S ADVENTURE.

A merry interlude at the opening day of the Eisteddfod has just come to light (says the "Western Mail"), and in its delightful official rigidity it smacks of Germany.

As Mr. Arthur Angle and his orchestra were rehearsing a new concerto by Mr. Josef Holbrooke on Monday afternoon just before the concert the famous composer himself arrived at the gates of the park. As every one knows, the precincts of the pavilion are paved with police, and Authority demanded a badge or a ticket. Mr. Holbrooke had come without a badge or a ticket. Therefore, said Authority stubbornly, he could stay outside.

A messenger was despatched to the pavilion, the rehearsal was stopped, and a message was sent back post-haste to let the distinguished musician in to hear his own work. Not so easily, however, was Authority to be circumvented, and the unfortunate composer, after waiting a long time on the outer side of the gate, finally gave up hope and went away.

He appeared at the concert, however, having apparently satisfied the police—in appearance Mr. Holbrooke is distinctly artistic—that he was not a dangerous Anarchist of a disguised fire-woman.

HIS SUBJECT.

In a recent book Mlle. van Vorst tells a story of a dinner at Chicago given by the ambitious wife of a millionaire tanner. The lady noticed, to her annoyance, that her husband did not speak a word to their smart guests, and when she got an opportunity she whispered angrily, "Why don't you talk ?"/" What's the good ?" replied the tanner contemptuously. "There ain't one of 'em as knows a thing about leather !"

HIS CLASS.

This story (says the "Tatler") was recently recalled in regard to the late Scottish Astronomer-royal, Professor Copeland. He was also professor of astronomy in Edinburgh University, but the duties of this latter office were not, apparently, very arduous. "How is your astronomy class getting on ?" a friend asked him once. "Oh, very well; very well indeed," replied Professor Copeland with a gratified air, "but at present he is laid up with influenza.',

INDIAN CURRENCY AND FINANCE.

SILVER EXCHANGE AND ASIATIC COMPETITORS.

The following letter is a review of Professor Maynard Keynes' book on Indian Currency and Finance :—

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "FINANCIAL NEWS."

Sir,—Before proceeding to consider the all-important terms of reference of the Royal Commission now sitting permit me to review shortly a valuable new book by a member of the Royal Commission—Professor Maynard Keynes. No student can adequately comprehend the complexities of Indian currency who has not brought himself up to date in the bright pages of this book. Professor Keynes writes quite judicially and with a leg in either camp. While his work represents a consideration of the problems involved from the standpoint of Indian finance, he yet recognises in the fairest spirit that a great drain of our gold to India, if it disappears into hoards, would give its death-blow to Indian finance, because it would drag down those prices at which India sells in every Occidental market, and, too, if it sterilises our finance, it will, therefore, make the future finance of India impossible. India is a great debtor community. We might capitalise her "home charges" at fully £400,000,000 sterling, which sum is about, India's gross income for one year. The gross income for Great Britain is about £2,000,000,000. Let us suppose that we were a "debtor nation" to that extent to the United States. It is easy to imagine our alarm should conditions arise which seriously involved the currency and finance, and thus the level of prices, in the United States. It isni that spirit Professor Keynes approaches the investigation, and it augurs Royal Commission that one, at least, of its members evinces a mood so judicial and a mind so trained in economies. The Professor's mood is exactly the reverse of that brilliant writer Mr. Montagu Webb. Here we have the clash of the two schools, Mr. Webb's view he expresses in these few words :—

"Not until Great Britain finds herself face to face with serious industrial competition from India, China, and Japan ; not until vast capital accumulations have shown Lombard-street that the East can finance that industial competition without the aid of 'the City' (and both these developments are steadily proceeding), will the magnates of Lombard-street realise that the silver and gold problem has been solved."

And, again, Mr. Webb declares:—

"It cannot be too loudly proclaimed, nor too frequently impressed upon those who desire to abandon India's silver standard, that during the twenty years preceding the closing of the Indian mints India advanced at a rate to which we can find no parallel among the gold monometallic nations" of the West." These "vast capital accumulations "are, of conrse, the drain of some £160,000,000 sterling of our gold since the gold standard of 1898, was arranged for India ; and the triumphant President of the Karachi Chamber has come here a witness before our Commission, just to warn ance on our graves.

At this point let me remind the City that this Royal Commission has been appointed to consider the policy of the Currency Committee of 1898—the so-called Fowler Committee. When that Committee had been empaneled the City of London was so alarmed by its personnel that a protest was signed by practically all "the Lombard-street magnates," and sent to the Secretary of State (Lord George Hamilton), over the official signature of the Governor of the Bank of England. To this protest Lord George makes reply as follows (India Office, May 16, 1898 :—

"And I will say, further, that, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Government, the interests of India are so bound up with those of this country that no action which would have the effect of inflicting injury or even "serious and lasting disturbance" on the London Money Market is likely to be regarded as beneficial to India."

And Professor Keynes, in his book, proceeds to warn us of the probability of future disaster. He writes of this Pactolus flood to India :—

"Perhaps we may fairly sum this evidence up by saying that it goes to show the existence in India, at present time, of an enormous demand for gold bullion, a very considerable demand for sovereigns for purposes of hoarding, and a relatively smaller demand for them confined to the United Provinces, for the Punjab, Madras, and for Bombay, purposes of currency."

And he quotes from the report of the Punjab Chamber of Commerce (and the Punjab is the province to which Mr. Webb categorically refers as demonstrating the popularity and suitability of the sovereign for currency this most important passage:—

"We are of opinion that Government should not rely on the sovereigns which are being absorbed by the districts in exchange for produce and in the shape of savings "coming out at any time in any appreciable quantity to support the stability of the rupee."

And, Professor Keynes quotes Mr. R. W. Gillan, also a memeber of the Royal Comission and formerly Comptroller of the Paper Currency, as saying in his report:—

"It is quite conceivable that the acceptance by the cultivator of gold in payment of his crops "is in the nature of barter."

If, however, I were to pass in review the admirable material of which this book consists I should occupy many columns of your paper. It is more important to point out, with much respect, what I venture to think vitiates the entire argument of the book, and leaves it a dangerous guide in our present crisis.

The Fowler Committee had under review a very clever (probably like "bimetallism," a much too clever) proposal by Mr. A. M. Lindsay. Because it was so clever and so practicable, therefore the Fowler Committee condemned it root and branch. Mr. Lindsay said at the time "Never mind in spite of the Committee, it affords the only road," or words to that effect. Professor Keynes professes himself an ardent disciple of Mr. Lindsay, and declares and I believe correctly, that the Lindsay, "law" which Mr. Lindsay modestly predicates of Ricardo is working in India to-day. If this be so, then the Fowler Committee, having denounced the Lindsay plan, left India to the aftermath of the Lindsay plan which is the one thing remaining to-day to the credit of the Fowler Committee. The question then arises : "Is the Lindsay plan a most perilous fallacy ominous, as I think, of very great future disaster, or is it, as Professor Keynes declares, an evolution in currency" Here, indeed, is a full Term of Reference for the greatest currency inquiry ever made, and I suspect that the currency conditions of the Twentieth Century will "evolve" on just these lines.

It is interesting to recall that a rather random proposal as we thought, of Mr. Alfred deRothschild, (one of England's delegates to the Brussels Conference,) is probably the parent of the "Lindsay plan." If Professor Keynes would elaborate this plan, not for India, but for application by a limited International Union, say (England, the United States, France, and Germany) within a Union composed of these nations the Lindsay plan might work forward to our perfect safety. It would be then really our old friend the "Bland" Act, operating on International lines. The present scheme of the Government of India is "the Bland Bill, pure and simple" only devoid of any and every safeguard in that much-abused Bill.

I leave the full plan of Mr. Lindsay to the readers of the Professor's book ; or, if they want it verbatim, it is in the Blue-Book of the Fowler Committee; but I wish to point out its great danger as I see it, if worked locally.

It is true that France and the United States do keep in their currencies masses of greatly over-valued silver, to which the same full legal-tender prerogative attaches as to gold ; but it is hopelessly impracticable to treat the currency of India in this way. All the additions to the currency of France and the United States are in the "metal of their standard," namely gold ; not a single full legal-tender silver piece has been struck in either country for many years. But in India, while "no coin" has been struck in the metal of its new standard, yet colossal additions have been made from year to year in that metal which is not the standard ; and these additions which are in silver rupees must needs be made. There is no help for it if India is to avoid a veritable money famine.

I hold, then, that it is quite impossible to pump into currency in India, vast masses of full legal-tender silver over-valued some 70 per cent. the while you maintain gold in her currency. Inevitably, the hoarders, with the rupee accumulations of a hundred years, will eject the less valuable silver currency to re-place it with the more valuable gold. More and more will this be the case, so long as the "Gold-Exchange standard" is maintained. As well make water run uphill as protect us and our Gold Reserves from this vast gold drain under conditions such as obtain to-day. The one and the only thing that can protect our Gold Reserves is a monometallic Asia. For India's sake, as well as ours, we must win our way back to Asia, to India, the Straits, and China on a silver basis. Indian, "bimetillism," having already greatly impaired British finance, will next destroy India. Every recent endeavour has been, and still is, to get Asia—omnivorous, specie-devouring Asia—on a gold basis. It had seemed well to a few returning merchants, and to a few officials with families at home to secure "sixteen pence for tenpence"! Dexterous trading has ever represented that problem—namely, how to get sixteen pence for tenpence. And just as Warren Hastings "marvelled at his own moderation," the more modern Nabob, too, may plume himself that he did not "go nap on" a seventeen-penny rupee. Tenpence the rupee on a fortune of a crore, which is a very modest fortune these days—is, as compared with remitting the "artificial rupee" at sixteen pence, £415,000 by contrast with £640,000, or with £705,000 at seventeen pence. Why, with a complacent Elgin-West-land Government at Simla, its pocket interest inclined to nod Olympian, even at eighteen pence the rupee, the Indian merchants should "stand pat" on sixteen pence, who can say?

Why then did they? I suppose the reply is—and this is the point for Professor Keynes to weigh well—that sixteen pence for tenpence leaves the West, especially Western labour, just barely able to "carry the baby" of the silver question. True, it involves that in place of a great drain of silver there is a great drain of gold ; true, it involves that as the silver exchanges with China fall, so, also, the competition notified above by Mr. Montagu Webb must eviscerate our trades. True, that, because silver is thus cheapened, China at Hsn Yang can put on ocean-going ships the highest grade of pig-iron for £2 6s. per ton—that is, 16 taels. Yet these 16 taels but the "other day would have cost five guineas gold" ! When giving evidence before the Straits Currency Commission, Sir Thomas Jackson, chairman of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, said : (399) "I was in Shanghai in 1867. Then the only items of export were tea and silk. Now the low exchange has enabled them to export all sorts of things—hides, tallow, wax ; in fact, in a ship of 6,000 tons you will find tea and silk not 5 per cent. of the cargo (399). There are a hundred and one articles exported from China now that were impossible to export thirty years ago." That is the competition to which white workers are exposed because of the fall in silver, and that is why the Lindsay plan, or any plan which leaves the gold price of silver clean out of account, is a treason to the white races. The fall in the price of silver has just cut down the wages cost of all that China exports—"pigs, pig-iron, pigtails"—by 60 per cent.

In a letter to this writer of February 1909, Tong Shoa Yi, when explaining why China would never adopt the "Gold-Exchange Standard," had this to say, and this brilliant young mandarin was destined to be the first Prime Minister of the Chinese Republic: "In China, fluctuations in exchange such as those of last year are, of course, very troublesone for our importing merchants ; still no doubt last year's fall in silver greatly assists our mills and other manufacturing industries which might be damaged by the competition of imported foreign goods if the exchange rose. Thus the fall in exchange is even as an increasing tariff; but unlike a tariff our exports are not reduced but are, so to speak, subsidised."—Yours faithfully.

Brede, August 2.

107 IN THE SHADE.

PRISONERS ALLOWED TO SLEEP ON GAOL ROOF.

Intense suffering was reported in mail week from Kansos (Oklahoma) and Northern Texas, as the result of a heat wave which had continued for twelve days.

Wells everywhere were drying up, and several mines, unable to obtain water, had ceased operations One mine in the Pittsburg district of Kansas on Aug. 14, secured a train load of thirty cars of water for the use of employees and their families. In the Seward country, whery no rain had fallen for two months, the few wells which still gave water were surrounded by men, women, and children, who, travelling from distant farms, had pitched tents around the waterholes.

From Kantas City scores of wealthy citizens were driving nightly in their motor-cars to the nearest hills where a breeze is blowing, and there made their beds in the open air. The prisoners of Okmulgee gaol were being petmitted to sleep on the roof. In Nebraska and Missouri, where a temperature of 107 degrees was reported, immense losses of live stock were causing farmers despair.

THE WRONG FUNERAL.

AMUSING ERROR OF A MAYOR.

The remarkable incident of a large number of persons attending the funeral of a relative who was not dead is reported from Carmaux, in the department of the Tarn France.

The name of Calvignac is very common in that district, and when M. Calvignac, Socialist Mayor of Carmaux, received a telegram announcing the death of a cousin of that name at the hospital at Albi, he informed a large number of other cousins of various degrees, and a large party, all bearing the name of Calvignac, went to the funeral at Albi, and the customary panegyric was delivered at the gravesive.

The mourners returned to the railway station, and while waiting for the train and discussing the numerous excellent qualities of the deceased, a little old man pushed his way into the group and greeted the Mayor most affectionately.

"I have not seen you for a long time, but I heard you were here, and I hurried to see you before your departure. What is it? An excursion?"

The Mayor recognised him with astonishment as the cousin whose death they were lamenting.

"We heard you were dead" he said "and we have just been to your funeral," he explained.

"What, all of you?" the cousin asked.

"Yes, we are all Calvignacs of Carmaux.

"Well, you have not been to my funeral for I am not dead, or anywhere near it," the old man retorted, angrily.

"Then whose funeral have we been to?" the Mayor asked.

"I don't know, and don't care, so long as it is not mine."

Anger on the part of the Carmaux Calvignacs at having wasted a day at the interment of a stranger gave way to wonderment as to which of the family had died and this point has not yet been solved.

THE LADIES' CORNER.

THE TOILET.

"Her brow is like a snowdrift,
Her neck is like the swan,
Her face it is the fairest,
That e'er the sun shone on !"

As we have already agreed, no single item must be neglected or left out of consideration by the woman who wishes to preserve and make the best of her looks, and a smooth and unwrinkled brow, as well as a firm and white throat column, require increasing care for their preservation. "Peace of mind," it has been said, "in the greatest beauty doctor," and, as usual, there is a great deal more in the adage than meets the eye. A smooth forehead has always played a great part in the scheme of beauty, although nowadays, with the exaggerated and extravagant arrangement of the hair, it is not nearly so often seen as it used to be. But the woman who possesses this beauty is foolish indeed not to make the most of it, for it is an exceptional and very distinct asset, and one which gives individuality and distinction to any face.

THE DISFIGURING FROWN.

From such a broad smooth forehead the hair generally grows in a graceful and becoming fashion, very often standing erect in the true natural pompadour, which requires no pads or fluffing, and than which, when it is natural, there is no greater beauty. Nothing spoils the forehead or lines it more than frowning, and while the raising of the eyebrows or gentle massage with the finger-tips relaxes the skin and makes it supple, the frown which draws the eyebrows together makes a permanent line in a very short time, which entirely does away with its beauty. The really beautiful forehead was always considered a proper and fitting background for a jewel, and a drop pearl hung from the central parting of the hair was one of the favourite forms the jewel took. Another was the single stone, bound across in a fillet, and as short a time ago as the late 'forties a band of pale blue ribbon bound flatly across the forehead was a favourite fashion, and often seen under a poke bonnet. Anger, discontent, and worry will line a face more quickly than years, and the lines worked in this manner can hardly be removed by the most skilful and clever massage. They show first of all and most conspicuously on the forebead, and therefore every one whom cares for this unique and unusual gift of Venus must take care to keep her mind as far as possible at ease, or at least prevent it from "being writ in lines" upon her face.

A NEW DISCOVERY.

The throat was another beauty held in high honour long ago, and only just coming into its own again ! "The stem of the lily," as it is called in the flowery Chinese language, has indeed fallen upon evil days during the past centurry, and stiff wired collars, starched linen collars, tight bands of velvet, and even the dog collars of jewels and precious stones have done their very best to ruin the throats of not only the present generation, but of several to come. The wearing of a tight collar is most injurious, some of the least of the evils attending it being the shrunken skin and the baggy and scraggy, dragged appearance the throat so quickly acquires. But there is much worse than this, for there are special and peculiar glands in a woman's neck, the true functions of which are only now beginning to be understood, but on which pressure of any kind has the most disastrous and alarming effect. The open-necked blouses and bodices of the present day have this case is of an entirely different nature from that for the scarggy neck. and must be taught by a practiced masseuse, or more harm than good will be done. The double chin is the veritable bugbear of the stout woman, and it is encouraging to know that, taken in time, it can be entirely prevented and in every case, if time and trouble and proper treatment be given to it, considerably lessened, even if of long standing.

A BIG MAN ALWAYS LOOKS SMALL after he has been taken in to buy a substitute for SQUIBB'S AGUE SPECIFIC which has never been known to disappoint victims of Malaria and other fevers. One of its enthusiasts writes "It saved the lives of two patients seriously ill with Malarial Fever and had been given up by the Doctors as hopless cases." SCIENCE NOTES.

MEMORIALS TO SCHIAPARELLI.

A committee comprising the heads of leading Italian scientific institutions and presided over by the King of Italy has been formed to obtain funds by public subscription for paying suitable honor to the memory of the late Prof. Giovanni Schiaparelli, the distinguished astronomer. It is proposed to erect a monument to him at his birthplace, Savigliano, in Piedmont, and to place a memorial tablet in the Brera Palace at Milan. He was connected with the Observatory of Brera for forty years, most of that time as director. To the world at large Schiaparelli was chiefly famous for his discovery of the so-called "canals" of Mars in 1877.

GERMAN OBSERVATORY IN THE FAR EAST.

The Imperial Observatory at Tsingtau, capital of the German colony of Kiaochau, China, is rapidly becoming one of the leading scientific institutions of the Far East. Originally founded chiefly for nautical purposes, it now carries on regular work in terrestrial magnetism, seismology, astronomy (including time-service), tidal observations, adjustment of compasses, chronometers, etc., and, above all, practical meteorology. The observatory receives telegraphic weather reports (partly by wireless) from a large number of stations in China, Japan, Korea, and Siberia; also wireless weather reports from all German war vessels on the Asiatic station. Daily weather maps are published, forecasts issued, and storm warnings displayed. When a typhoon is reported on the adjacent seas the observatory keeps in constant communication, day and night, by wireless with German men-of-war, and is thus enabled to follow the progress of the disturbance with great accuracy.

THE CHINESE WOOD-OIL TREE.

This tree is the subject of a circular by David Fairchild recently published by the U. S. Bureau of Plant Industry, the purpose of the publication being to advocate an extensive cultivation of the tree in this country, where it has been grown in a small way since 1906. The importance of this recommendation is shown by the fact that five million gallons of wood oil (also known as tung oil), made from the seeds of this plant was imported from China last year, and the product is said to have had a revolutionary effect on the varnish industry of the United States. It has, says Mr. Fairchild, largely taken the place of kauri gum and has made possible the manufacture of a quicker drying varnish, which is less liable to crack than that made from kauri gum, and has been found of special value in waterproof priming for cement. The tree is climatically adapted for cultivation in the Southern States, and the Department of Agriculture is distributing one-year-old specimens to bona fide experimenters.

DR. BABCOCK'S RETIREMENT.

Dr. Stephen M. Babcock, for twenty-five years professor of agricultural chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, and the inventor of the famous milk test which revolutionized dairy methods twelve years ago, has retired from active work with the appointment as Professor Emeritus of the university. The milk test, which is a method for the accurate determination of fat in milk, is not Dr. Babcock's only invention. Among his other donations to science are a viscometer for testing the viscosity of oils, a gravimeter for analyzing milk and a method of chloroforming milk to produce a ferment, called galactase, which is used to ripen cheese. As the result of one of his investigations he discovered that the liquids produced by living plants and animals are not wholly waste products but subserve a useful purpose through which, for example, the ascent of sap in trees and the succulence of fruits is explained.

NOVEL WEATHER COCK.

The statue of St. Mark on the campanile in Venice dates from the sixteenth century and, as it could be easily repaired, it has been placed on the new tower mounted on ball bearing so as to turn its thin side to the wind. The statue which weighs 2649 pounds is kept upright by a hanging weight af 2869 pounds. The bearings with two spheroidal races have 64 balls, 3-8 inches in diameter in four rows and the spheroidal form not only permits turning but allows a slight swaying to take up shock like a spring.

A PLANET DETECTOR.

Small minor planets have the same appearance as stars and their proper motion—often not easy to detect—is the only means of distinguishing them. An instrument for picking them out rapidly has been described by M. J. Lagrula to the Paris Academy of Sciences. This is a binocular combination of telescope and microscope, and with it a coloured image of a photographic positive of the sky region is superposed on the image seen in the telescope. All object in the field of the telescope, except small planets that have moved into the field since the photograph was taken, are shown by the presence of coloured discs.

"TITANIC" DISASTER: ICEBERG THEORIES FAIL.

Icebergs are the real terrors of the sea, giving no warning of their approach in thick weather, and the only rational course for a navigator to adopt when his ship is in a fog in their vicinity is to stop and wait for the haze to lift. This, in effect, is the burden of the reports of Captains C. E. Johnston and A. S. Gamble, of the cutters "Seneca" and "Miomi," which from April to July patrolled the transatlantic lane of travel to prevent a repetition of the "Titanic" disaster. Captain Johnston refuted the prevalent theory that a sudden drop in temperature meant the proximity of icebergs. Little or no change in temperature was noticeable, he said. Nor can icebergs, as generally supposed, be detected with any certainty by an echo from a ship's whistle or bells, as, according to Captain Johnston, a perpendicular berg may give an echo from some directions, but a slanting face deflects the sound. About 90 per cent. of the "Seneca's" efforts to get echoes were futile. The presence of murres (a kind of auk), the officer declares, indicated the presence of icebergs, but he advises mariners to pay no attention to other birds. In some instances he found the bergs literally covered with birds, principally murres, but in others there was not a bird in sight.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS :—Are you broken in your rest by a sick child suffering with the pain of cutting teeth? Go at once to a chemist and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor sufferer immediately. It is perfectly harmless and pleasant to taste, it produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes "as bright as a button." It soothes the child, it softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for dysentry and diarrhœa, whether ariding from teething or other causes. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is sold by Medicine dealers everywhere.

LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL

THE PUREST. THE MOST PALATABLE. THE MOST DIGESTIBLE. THE MOST EFFICACIOUS.

Incontestably proved by Forty Years' Medical Experience to be The only Cod Liver Oil which produces the full curative effects in

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST, THROAT AFFECTIONS, GENERAL DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE SKIN, WASTING DISEASES OF CHILDREN, RICKETS, AND ALL SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR G. DUNCAN GIBB, Bart., M.D.,
Physician to the Westminster Hospital.

"The value of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL as a therapeutic agent in a number of diseases, chiefly of an exhaustive character, has been admitted by the world of medicine; but, in addition, I have found it a remedy of great power in the treatment of many Affections of the Throat and Larynx, especially in Consumption of the latter, where it will sustain life when everything else fails."

DR. SINCLAIR COGHILL,
Physician to the Royal National Hospital for Consumption, Ventnor.

"I have convinced myself that in Tubercular and the various forms of Strumous Disease, Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL possesses greater therapeutic efficacy than any other Cod Liver Oil with which I am acquainted. It was especially noted in a large number of cases in which the patients protested they had never been able to retain or digest other Cod Liver Oil, that DR. DE JONGH'S OIL was not only tolerated, but taken readily, and with marked benefit."

JOSEPH J. POPE Esq., M.R.C.S.,
Late Staff Surgeon, Army, Professor of Hygiene, Birkbeck Institution, London.

"I found during my Indian experience that the worth and character of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL remained unchanged by tropical heat or foreign climate, and it was, from its uniformity of character, particularly adapted for long-continued administration. The value of 'hydro-carbone' in all debilitated states of the system is now becoming thoroughly recognized; and it is, without doubt, from the animal oils, and fats, rather than from their vegetable substitutes, that we may hope to derive the surest benefit. The Oil of DR. DE JONGH places in everyone's reach a reliable and valuable remedy, one that cannot be too widely recognized."

DR. R. C. CROFT,
Author of "Handbook for the Nursery."

"DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is almost a specific in many of the Diseases peculiar to Infancy and Childhood, and I have seen marked benefit produced by its use. Patients prefer it to the Pale Oils, and are able to retain it more comfortably."

Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is Supplied ONLY in IMPERIAL Half-Pints, Pints and Quarts, sealed with BETTS' Patent Capsule impressed on the top with DR. DE JONGH'S Stamp, and on the side with his Signature, and the Signature of ANSAR, HARFORD & Co.; and bearing under the wrapper a Label with the same Stamp and Signatures.

A Natural Remedy

Time was when disease was thought to be due to the direct influence of evil spirits, and exorcism and magic were invoked to cast it out.

Science has taught us wisdom. The evil spirits exist still. We call them "Disease Germs," and they also must be cast out. Once lodged in the stomach or intestines, fever with its hallucinations, or biliousness with its aches and pains, is the result.

ENO'S FRUIT SALT

is the approved remedy for driving out disease germs. Its action is quick and thorough. It clears the intestines, rouses the torpid liver to new life, stimulates the mucous membrane to a healthy action, and cleanses and invigorates the whole digestive tract.

It may be safely taken at any time by young or old.

It is very effective in the early stage of Diarrhœa by removing the irritating cause.

Be prepared for emergencies by always keeping a bottle in the house.

A Celebrated Violiniste

Nervous Fatigue, Headaches, Languor—

The power to excel, the confidence which ensures her brilliant successes, says the talented violinist, Miss Sybil Keymer, is entirely due to her abundance of vigorous nerve force created by Phosferine. How greatly the numerous distinctions and triumphant career of this accomplished musician are promoted by the brain energy and physical stamina developed by Phosferine, is evident from Miss Keymer's admission that the tonic "enabled me to do myself justice." This power to excel, this ability to make perfect use of her skill, depends upon the marvellous control and steadiness of the muscle nerves Phosferine has given her, and to which she owes the entrancing tone and quality of her musical renditions. Naturally, this energising effect of Phosferine was accompanied by the disappearance of the headaches, listlessness, and fatigue, which were the bane of her public appearances, and it is this happy outcome which impels Miss Keymer to testify to the exceptional advantages to be derived from Phosferine.

Promptly Remedied.

Miss Sybil Keymer, "Riversmere," Albany Rd., Leighton Buzzard, Eng., writes: "I think I should inform you that I have recently derived very great benefit from the use of Phosferine. In the course of my profession I have to travel a good deal in getting to my various concerts, and I find that since using Phosferine I am never troubled with the headaches and listlessness which follow a long railway journey, particularly during hot weather. This is of very great importance to me, as frequently only a very little time elapses between reaching my destination and the commencement of a concert, and it is such a relief to feel fresh and ready for playing in public undisturbed by the fatigues of long travelling. It is because I feel that Phosferine enables me to do myself justice as a violinist, preventing any of the unsteadiness of the muscle nerves, which is so harmful to tone and quality, that I confidently commend the tonic at every opportunity."—July 11, 1912.

THE ROYAL STANDARD TYPEWRITER.

There is no stronger argument in favour of the ROYAL, than the following list of "PROMINENT ROYALISTS" a list including the largest and most experienced users of typewriters throughout the United Kingdom, and their judgment cannot be questioned. Their endorsement of the ROYAL is all the proo you need that it has no superior on the market. If the ROYAL will fill their requirements, it will fill yours.

In the United States, the Post Office Department use over 2,000 ROYALS, other departments use over 1,900.

The Austrian Government have recently ordered over 200 ROYALS.

The old proverb says that "A man is knownby the company he keeps" all that we ask is that you will judge of the merits of the ROYAL by its users.

VETARZO BRAIN AND NERVE FOOD

This remarkable compound, the latest discovery of modern times for all phases of brain and nerve wreckage and exhaustion, sleeplessness, tremblings, palpitation, nervous dyspepsia, low spirits, mental and bodily prostration, muscular and local weakness, general and nervous debility, faulty nutrition, premature decay or deficiency of the vital forces, impaired vitality, harassing dreams, night disturbances, sudden startings, dimness of sight, defective hearing, loss of memory, inability to perform the various duties of life, or to enjoy its pleasures, restlessness that can settle to nothing, irritability of temper, female complaints, hysteria, painful periods, backache, bearing down sensations, nervous headache, wasting disease, night sweats, &c., whether induced by worry, overwork, unhealthy climate, dissipation, excesses, or other influences incidental to the wear and tear and haste or over-strain of modern life. Bracing up the system generally, it gives tone to the exhausted nerves, arrests all weakening wasting discharges, restores the failing energies, and imparts new life and vigour to those who had so recently seemed played out, "used up," and valueless

VETARZO BLOOD MEDICINE

Never before was there anything like it, nor can its marvellous properties ever be equalled in all cases of poorness, impurity, or other imperfection of the blood from whatever cause arising. No sooner is it imbibed into the system than it permeates and penetrates to the minutest capillaries, overcoming and expelling the virus of disease, wheresoever and in whatsoever form met with; removing all blotches, pimples, scurf, scurvy, scrofulous and glandular swellings, discolorations, roughness and unsightly patches, &c. Its effects are almost magical in the treatment of gout, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, pains and swellings of the joints, discharges, blood poison, secondary symptoms, eczema, lepra, psoriasis, bad legs, bad breasts, abscesses, ulcers, wounds, sores, goitre or Derbyshire neck, it improves the general health, and quickly removes long-standing bronchitis, asthma, and hacking, straining, spasmodic cough, too often the precursor of consumption.

CAUTION.—Ask for "VETARZO Brain and Nerve Food," or "VETARZO Blood Medicine," whichever is required, and see that you get them, as unprincipled vendors often try to palm off inferior preparations (usually their own manufacture), for the sake of extra profit. Price in England, 2/9. Every genuine bottle of these medicines bears the British Government Stamp with the words "VETARZO REMEDIES" impressed thereon, in white letters on a red ground. Registered Trade Mark, "VETARZO."

Sole Proprietors: THE VETARZO REMEDIES Co., GOSPEL OAK, LONDON, ENGLAND.

Legal proceedings will be taken against all persons infringing the Proprietors' rights.

COMMON SENSE IN A NUTSHELL.—A new medical work on certain vitally important matters with which every young man should be acquainted. Post free in plain sealed envelope on receipt of Postal Order sixpence from THE VETARZO REMEDIES Co., Gospel Oak, London, or of Agents for above medicines. Agents for South Africa: LENNON LTD. (all Branches). Agents for India: TREACHER & CO. LTD., BOMBAY.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

IF YOU ARE SUFFERING

from any such disease as ECZEMA, SCROFULA, BAD LEGS, ABSCESSES, ULCERS, GLANDULAR SWELLINGS, BOILS, PIMPLES, SORES OF ANY KIND, PILES, BLOOD POISON, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, etc., don't waste your time and money on useless lotions and messy ointments which cannot get below the surface of the skin. What you want and what you must have to be permanently cured is a medicine that will thoroughly free the blood of the poisonous matter which alone is the true cause of all your suffering.

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE.
THE WORLD FAMED BLOOD PURIFIER

is just such a medicine. It is composed of ingredients which quickly attack, overcome, and expel from the blood all impurities from whatever cause arising, and by rendering it clean and pure can be relied on to effect a complete and lasting cure.

Here is good proof of its efficacy :—

POISONED FOOT CURED

"Some time ago I had an accident to my left foot (ran a nail into it), it fastered, and got so bad that the doctor was called in and said I had poisoned it. For 3 years I was under different doctors and for one year of the three I only went out in a bath chair. Not only during that time did I entirely lose the little toe of my left foot, but a gaping wound came in the inside of the same foot. It was so bad that when I bathed it I fancied I could see the bones. At last I decided to try 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and with the end of the second small bottle the discharge had stopped, and within a month I could get my foot to the ground. It is as well now as it ever was, of course, very scarred and a toe short, but I am sure I should have been a foot short had it gone on."

"WORTH £5 A DOSE"

"I also recommended it to a Sergeant's wife at Aldershot, whose husband had an open sore for seven years, the result of a sword thrust in Burma. She said she couldn't get him to try it for a long time, but at last he did, and the wound has completely healed. She told me that often after a long march he has writhed in agony and often fainted. When they were leaving to go to another station he came on purpose to say good-bye and thank me. He said he'd never forget me for being the cause of his trying it, and that it was worth £5 a dose.—Yours truly, (Mrs.) M. Cousins, 187 Twyford avenue, Portsmouth," England.
